

Saint James Walthamstow should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Walthamstow as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Walthamstow and with the consents of the Reverend William Carus of Merton Bournemouth in the county of Hants late a canon residentiary of the Cathedral Church of Winchester of the Reverend William Cadman rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of the Holy Trinity Marylebone in the county of Middlesex canon of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury of the Reverend George Edward Tate vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Kippington in the county of Kent, of the Reverend Field Flowers Goe rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint George Bloomsbury in the said county of Middlesex, and of the Very Reverend Robert Payne Smith Doctor in Divinity Dean of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury aforesaid, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Walthamstow (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Walthamstow and of the said new parish of Saint James Walthamstow which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Walthamstow as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Walthamstow.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Walthamstow being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Walthamstow and of the new parish of Saint James Walthamstow both in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans which said portions of such cures are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Walthamstow from the parish of Walthamstow aforesaid at the point where High-street is joined by Palmerston-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Walthamstow from the new parish of Saint John Walthamstow in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point at or near to the junction of the road called or known as Pretoria-avenue with Cross-street where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Walthamstow from the new parish of Saint James Walthamstow aforesaid and extending thence first north-westward then south-westward and then again north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of sixty-six and a half chains or thereabouts thereby first following the middle of Pretoria-avenue aforesaid then following the middle of Clay-street and then following the middle of Ferry-lane to the point at Ferry Bridge at Hellier's Ferry on the River Lea where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Walthamstow from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tottenham in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London and extending then first south-westward then southward and then generally south-eastward along the county and diocesan boundary for a distance of one mile and sixty-six chains or thereabouts thereby following the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Walthamstow from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tottenham aforesaid from the new parish of Saint Ann Hanger-lane from the new parish of Saint Thomas Stamford Hill and from the new parish of Saint Matthew Upper Clapton (the three last-named cures being in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid) to the centre of the bridge known as the River Lea Bridge which carries the line of the Chingford and Walthamstow Branch of the Great Eastern Railway over the River Lea aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of one mile and thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to a point upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Walthamstow from the parish of Walthamstow aforesaid, and extending thence first northward and then south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts thereby following in one part the course of Willow-walk and in another part the course of High-street aforesaid to the first-described point at the junction of the last-named street with Palmerston-road aforesaid where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans. C. L. Peel.
