FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 52.

DIFFERENT MEAL HOURS.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 52, contains a special exception to the effect that the provisions of the Act which require that all children, young persons, and women employed in the factory or workshop shall have the times allowed for meals at the same time of the day shall not apply in the cases therein referred to:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in factories and workshops of the classes mentioned in the Schedule hereunder it is necessary by reason of the continuous nature of the processes and the special circumstances affecting such classes, to extend thereto the foregoing special exception, and that such extension can be made without injury to the health of the children, young persons, and women affected thereby:

Now I, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend such special exception accordingly.

This Order shall come into operation on the 1st March, 1887, and shall continue in force until revoked.

Henry Matthews.

Whitehall, February 24, 1887.

Schedule.

Non-textile factories wherein is carried on the making of bread or biscuits by means of travelling ovens.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 52.

EMPLOYMENT, &c., DURING MEAL HOURS.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 52, contains a special exception to the effect that the provisions of the Act which require that a child, young person, and woman shall not during any part of the times allowed for meals in a factory or workshop be allowed to remain in a room in which the manufacturing process or handicraft is being carried on shall not apply in the cases therein referred to:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in factories and workshops of the classes mentioned in the Schedule hereunder, it is necessary, by reason of the continuous nature of the processes and the special circumstances affecting such classes, to extend thereto the foregoing special exception, and that such extension can be made without injury to the health of the children, young persons, and women affected thereby:

Now I, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend such exception accordingly.

This Order shall come into operation on the 1st March, 1887, and shall continue in force until revoked.

Henry Matthews.

Whitehall, February 24, 1887.
