FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1887.

Whitehall, March 25, 1887.

THE following Addresses were received by Her Majesty on the occasion of Her recent visit to the Borough of Birmingham on the 23rd instant:—

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Birmingham, in Council assembled, humbly approach Your Majesty with our loyal and hearty welcome.

Nearly thirty years have passed since Your Majesty, in company with the ever-lamented Prince Consort, honoured Birmingham with Your Royal Presence, and we believe that Your Majesty will not fail to notice, on the present occasion, the great changes and improvements that have, during this period, taken place in our town.

The object of Your Majesty's gracious visit is to lay the foundation stone of a noble building, destined for a noble purpose: the administration of Your Majesty's Justice in the midst of our great community; and, while we offer to Your Majesty our most hearty thanks for such a mark of Your Royal favour, we shall always regard it as a most happy circumstance that this great work was begun with Your Majesty's special sanction and assistance in this the Jubilee Year of Your Majesty's most glorious reign.

We fervently hope that this famous year may be one of true happiness to Your Majesty; and that, cheered by the love of Your sons and daughters, and secure in the affection and loyalty of Your people, Your Majesty may long be spared to preside over the destinies of this mighty Empire.

Given under our Common Seal this 23rd day of March, in the year of our Lord 1887, and in the fiftieth year of Your Majesty's Reign.

*Thomas Martineau, Mayor.
Edward Orford Smith, Town Clerk.*

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Auswer:—

"I RECEIVE with great pleasure your loyal and dutiful Address, and I fully appreciate the cordial welcome with which My people of Birmingham have met Me.

"I have observed with much gratification the vast improvements carried out, by the energy of the Corporation, since my last visit to Birmingham with my beloved husband, in 1858.

"I have seen with admiration the designs for the noble building which the Corporation intend to erect, and which appears to be in every way worthy of the high purposes it is meant to fulfil, by giving convenience and dignity to the administration of justice in your midst.

"I thank you heartily for your affectionate reference to Myself and My dear children.

"During the long and eventful period now extending to fifty years, through which My reign has continued, the loyalty and affection of My faithful people have been to Me a constant source of support in difficulty and of solace in affliction.

"I pray God that prosperity and happiness may ever attend on the labour of this vast and industrious community."

To Her Most Gracious Majesty, from the Royal Society of Artists:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Members of the Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, desire humbly to offer to Your Majesty our loyal and respectful congratulations on the attainment of the fiftieth year of Your Majesty's happy reign, and to express our deep sense of the distinction Your Majesty has conferred upon the town of Birmingham, by visiting it to lay the foundation stone of the Royal Courts of Justice. As representing a body devoted to the cultivation and promotion of Art, we claim to have an especial interest in Your Majesty's presence amongst us, for we recall with gratitude the honour done to us by the condescending kindness with which Your Majesty accorded Your gracious patronage to our Society, an act of favour marked by Your Majesty's command that the designation of Royal should thenceforth be incorporated with the title of our Society.

While we gratefully acknowledge the favour thus conferred upon ourselves, and testify to the benefits we have derived from it, we desire also as Artists, to thankfully express our appreciation of a peculiar distinction of Your Majesty's reign, by the diffusion of Art amongst the people, through the formation of societies for its promotion, the provision of public picture galleries and museums, the development of instruction in schools of art, and in many other ways,—benefits largely attributable to the enlightened interest which Your Majesty, Your late beloved and revered Consort, and the members of the Royal Family, have manifested in the encouragement and the practice of Art in its various branches. We earnestly pray that Your Majesty's favour may still be extended to the cultivation of Art amongst Your people, and we supplicate the Supreme Disposer of events that Your Majesty's reign may long be continued in health, happiness, and prosperity, to the great blessing of the nations over which Your Majesty's rule extends.

“With this prayer we humbly subscribe ourselves, on behalf of the Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, Your Majesty's most loyal, obedient, and humble subjects,

“E. Burne Jones, President.”
&c. &c. &c.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

“I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address. I regard with warm approval the objects of your Association.

“I feel confident that its Labours in the Field of Art will tend to educate the taste and expand the mind of those whose constant occupations leave them with too little leisure to seek the products of Art in other places; and I trust that your Zeal and Energy may be rewarded by success in fulfilling the task you have undertaken.”

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty.

WE, the President, Committee, Officers, and Patients of the Queen's Hospital, Birmingham, humbly approach Your Majesty with our loyal welcome and with our respectful and hearty congratulation upon the approaching completion of the fiftieth year of your illustrious reign.

When the Hospital was founded, forty-five years ago, Your Majesty graciously permitted it to take its name from Your royal title, and ever since that time, as Patron and also as a Governor of the institution, Your Majesty has graciously shown a continuous interest in the development and welfare of the charity.

We venture respectfully to inform Your Majesty that it is proposed shortly to reconstruct and extend the buildings of the institution with the view of placing it in greater harmony with the requirements of modern science and on a level with the increased necessities of the sick and suffering poor of Birmingham and its neighbourhood; and in this undertaking we humbly trust Your Majesty may graciously continue the auspicious patronage and interest which have marked Your Majesty's long connection with the Hospital.

We humbly express our fervent hope that this Jubilee year may be a source of joy and felicity to Your Majesty and the Royal Family, and that Your Majesty's reign may long be extended in peace and happiness.

Given under our Corporate Seal this 15th day of March, in the year of our Lord, 1887, and in the fiftieth year of Your Majesty's reign, and signed by Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects.

Leigh, President.

John C. Blissard, M.A., Chairman.

James Sawyer, M.D., Senior Physician.

John St. S. Wilders, Senior Surgeon.

Joshua Williams, Chairman of House Committee.

Priestley Smith, Chairman of Medical Committee.

E. Harold Carter, Acting Treasurer. Patients.

Arthur Hulme, Secretary and General Superintendent.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

“I receive with pleasure your loyal and dutiful Address. I gladly recognize the benefits which your Hospital confers on the sick and suffering poor of Birmingham and its neighbourhood; and I trust you may succeed in your praiseworthy endeavours not merely to maintain the present high standard of good management in the administration of this valuable Institution, but by structural improvements still further to enlarge its sphere of usefulness.”

Ad Serenissimam Potentissimamque Principem Victorianam Britanniarum Reginam.

NON sumus nescii, Clementissima Regina, quanto nos honore cumulaveris, quod pueris et puellis quibus pro munere satis magno esse potuit augusto Majestatis Tuæ conspectu frui, ultro concesseris ut hanc oratiunculam a manibus nostris accipias.

Est tamen humanitatis Tuæ, qua per tot annos artibus et disciplinis bonis constanter faves, discipulorum voces te salvere jubentium non dedignari.

Qui adsumus Regii Fundatoris, Edvardi Sexti, summa prudentia et beneficiis hodie utimur; quis antem augurari potest quantis posteris laudibus Victorianam sint celebraturi, cujus auspiciis literarum et doctrinæ scientia apud omnes civitatis ordines in tantum profecerit?

De nobis permittere atque confirmare licet gratissimis nos animis Majestatem Tuam prosequentes fausti hujus diei memoriam nunquam non observaturos; et Deum optimum Maximum oramus ut te florentem omni felicitate et gloria, bonorum omnium amore et reverentia abundantem, quam diutissime hoc tantum imperium moderari patiatur.

Obsignavit discipulorum nomine,

H. D. Nicol.

Brimicham,

A.D. X Kal. Apr. CIOIOCCCLXXXVII.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

“I THANK you for your Loyal and Dutiful Address.

“I hope that all My youthful subjects who profit by the forethought and wisdom of My Predecessor King Edward the Sixth may grow up loyal and worthy Citizens, and that the Institution to which they now belong may never cease to flourish as a place of sound and useful education.”

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Members of the Birmingham and Midland Institute, humbly offer to Your Majesty a loyal welcome to Birmingham, and hearty felicitations on the attainment of the fiftieth year of Your Majesty's beneficent reign.

We warmly congratulate Your Majesty on the vast extension of education among Your subjects which will mark Your Majesty's reign as the grandest in all English history.

We recall with sorrowful satisfaction the impulse given to artistic and scientific culture by the late lamented Prince Consort, who, with wise insight, regarded education as the first element in true national greatness. On laying the foundation stone of the Institute in 1855, His Royal Highness advocated as "Our bounden duty," the study of the laws by which the universe is governed, and predicted the expansion of general education in the direction of Science and Art.

We venture to think that the Institute is typical of the educational aspirations and achievements which are among the most illustrious characteristics of our country under Your Majesty's benignant reign.

The educational work of the Institute, which began with three classes and 56 students, has now developed into 130 classes, with entries exceeding 4,600, in all branches of science, literature, and music; and has thus extended to the whole community the educational advantages formerly enjoyed exclusively by the rich few.

This extension would not have been possible without the aid of the Science and Art Department of Your Majesty's Government, whose continuous assistance we gratefully acknowledge.

We venture to hope that this Department may be enabled still further to foster the higher intellectual life of Your people, and that thus in the words of the late Prince Consort, Science and Art may become "the conscious regulators of productive industry," and the countless blessings of academic culture be even more widely diffused among Your Majesty's subjects, during the happy years which we trust Your Majesty may continue to reign.

On behalf of the Institute, whose Common Seal is affixed hereunto, we humbly subscribe ourselves,

Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects,

(Signed) J. B. Seeley, President.

G. H. Johnstone, } Vice-Presidents.
C. A. Harrison, }
G. S. Mathews, Treasurer.
R. F. Martineau, Hon. Secretary.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you sincerely for your loyal and dutiful Address of Congratulation on the attainment of the Fiftieth year of My reign.

"The Spread of Education and the Diffusion of Knowledge in the Provinces of Science and Art was always an object of interest and solicitude with My beloved Husband, and it is a source of lively satisfaction to Me to learn that his exertions in this direction have borne good fruit since he laid the foundation stone of your Institute.

"The wider spread of general Culture becomes more important every year in the interests of productive Industry as well as of good and orderly Government; and I anticipate with confidence from the past history of the Birmingham and Midland Institute that it will render valuable service in the promotion of this useful purpose."

THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1887.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of March, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Lord John Manners.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Amendment of Article 87 of The Animals Order of 1886.

1. Regulation D (Animals not affected with Pleuro-Pneumonia or Foot-and-Mouth Disease or Swine-Fever) of Article 87 of The Animals Order of 1886 is hereby revoked, and the following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of the said Regulation D, and shall be deemed to be Regulation D of Article 87 of that Order (namely):

(Regulation D.—Animals not affected with Pleuro-Pneumonia or Foot-and-Mouth Disease or Swine-Fever.)

(xvii.) Where an animal being in or on the market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, lair, landing-place, wharf, railway station, land, water, common, uninclosed land, cow-shed, field, yard, sty, farm, park, or other place aforesaid, is seised as being affected with pleuro-pneumonia or foot-and-mouth disease or swine-fever, it shall be competent for a Veterinary Inspector of the Local Authority to seise and detain as suspected of disease—

- (a.) Any head of cattle that by reason of its having been in contact with or in the same herd with a head of cattle so seised as being affected with pleuro-pneumonia, or
- (b.) Any animal that by reason of its having been in contact with or in the same herd with an animal so seised as being affected with foot-and-mouth disease, or
- (c.) Any pig that by reason of its having been in contact with or in the same herd with a pig so seised as being affected with swine-fever, is, in his opinion, likely to spread pleuro-pneumonia or foot-and-mouth disease or swine-fever, and the suspected animal so seised and detained shall be dealt with as follows:

(xviii.) The suspected animal so seised may be slaughtered by or at the request of the owner or person in charge thereof at the place where it is seised; or

(xviii.) The suspected animal so seised may be moved by or at the request of the owner or person in charge thereof, with a Licence of the Veterinary Inspector, to the nearest available slaughter-house, for the purpose of being there forthwith slaughtered; in which latter case the following provisions shall apply:

(xviii.) The Licence shall be available for twelve hours, and no longer.

(xviii.) The Licence shall specify the slaughter-house to which the suspected animal is to be moved for slaughter, and it shall not be moved to any other slaughter-house or place.

(xviii.) The suspected animal so moved shall be moved to the specified slaughter-house, under the direction and in charge of an Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority; and he shall enforce and superintend the immediate slaughter there of the animal, and shall forthwith report to the Local Authority the fact of the slaughter there.

(xvii.f.) If the movement is to be into the District of another Local Authority, there must also be a Licence of that other Local Authority indorsed on or referring to the first-mentioned Licence; which second Licence must be granted before the animal is moved into the District of that other Local Authority.

(xvii.g.) The suspected animal so moved into the District of that other Local Authority shall be moved to the specified slaughter-house under the direction and in charge of an Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority out of whose District it is moved; and he shall enforce and superintend the immediate slaughter there of the animal, and shall forthwith report to both the Local Authorities the fact of the slaughter there.

(xvii.h.) The suspected animal if not slaughtered as aforesaid, may be moved, in charge of an Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority, to some convenient and isolated place, and shall be there kept for such time as the Local Authority think expedient, subject, however, to its being there slaughtered at any time by or at the request of the owner or person in charge thereof.

Detention of Cattle that have been in Contact with Cattle Affected with Pleuro-Pneumonia.

2.—(1.) Any Local Authority may, if they think fit, on any evidence satisfactory to them that there is within their District any head of cattle which at any time within fifty-six days previous to the date of the Notice hereinafter-mentioned has been in contact with, or in the same herd with, any head of cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia (such first-mentioned head of cattle being hereinafter referred to as such suspected animal), cause Notice to be served on the owner or person in a charge of such suspected animal, and also, if they think fit, a Notice on the occupier of any place in which such suspected animal then is, prohibiting the movement of such suspected animal during the period named in such Notice from the cow-shed, field, yard, park, or other like place in which such suspected animal then is, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person to move during such period such suspected animal in contravention of the terms of any such Notice, or any other head of cattle that may be in the same cow-shed, field, yard, park, or other like place with such suspected animal, without the permission of the Local Authority first obtained: Provided that the period named in such Notice shall not exceed fifty-six days from the date on which such suspected animal was in contact with, or in the same herd with, any head of cattle as aforesaid: Provided also that it shall not be competent for a Local Authority to cause any such Notice to be served during the time such suspected animal is in a market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, landing-place, wharf, railway station, or other like place, or is being moved by land or by water.

(2.) With a view to the execution of the provisions of this Article a Local Authority may, from time to time, make such Regulations as they think fit for regulating the movement of cattle so detained under the provisions of this Article.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement of Cattle within their District on Account of Pleuro-Pneumonia.

3. Any Local Authority may, with the view of preventing the spreading of pleuro-pneumonia, make, from time to time, such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the movement by land or by water of cattle in the whole of their District or in any part or parts thereof.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Markets &c. on Account of Pleuro-Pneumonia.

4.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in Chapter 16 (REGULATION BY LOCAL AUTHORITIES OF MARKETS, FAIRS, AND OTHER PLACES) of The Animals Order of 1886, any Local Authority may, with the view of preventing the introduction into their District, or the spreading in their District, of pleuro-pneumonia, make, from time to time, such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the exposing for sale of any cattle in or at any market, fair, auction, sale-yard, sale, or exhibition within their District.

(2.) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Article shall be deemed to apply to the exposing for sale of—

- (a.) Cattle in a Cattle-Plague Infected Place; or
- (b.) Cattle in a Pleuro-Pneumonia Infected Place or Area; or
- (c.) Cattle in a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place or Area; or
- (d.) Cattle at any sale where such sale is held in accordance with the following conditions (namely):
 - (i.) That no head of cattle on the farm or premises is affected with pleuro-pneumonia:
 - (ii.) That each head of cattle exposed at the sale has been on the farm or premises not less than fifty-six clear days immediately before the day on which the sale is held, without having been moved therefrom:
 - (iii.) That no head of cattle exposed at the sale has been in contact with any cattle brought on to the farm or premises within those fifty-six days.

Limitation on Regulations of Local Authority.

5.—(1.) The powers conferred on a Local Authority to make Regulations under this Order shall be exercised only by a Local Authority or their Executive Committee, and shall not be deputed to any other Committee nor to a Subcommittee.

(2.) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order shall be deemed to apply to the movement of—

- (a.) Cattle in or into or out of a Cattle-Plague Infected Place; or
- (b.) Cattle in or into or out of a Pleuro-Pneumonia Infected Place or Area; or
- (c.) Cattle in or into or out of a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place or Circle or Area; or
- (d.) Cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia; or
- (e.) Cattle by Railway through the District of that Local Authority, without untrucking; which movement is regulated by the Acts of 1878 to 1886 and Orders of Council issued thereunder.

Slaughter of Suspected Cattle by Special Authority of Privy Council.

6.—(1.) Where a Veterinary Inspector shall have certified to a Local Authority to the effect that a head of cattle is suspected by him to be affected with pleuro-pneumonia, that Local Authority, if authorized by the Privy Council to put in operation this Article, but not otherwise, may, if they think fit, cause that head of cattle to be slaughtered.

(2.) Where a head of cattle has been slaughtered by order of a Local Authority under this Article, the Local Authority shall in the case of each head of cattle so slaughtered, previous to the disposal of the carcase, cause a post-mortem examination to be made thereof, which examination shall be conducted by a Veterinary Inspector specially appointed in that behalf who shall forthwith report to the Local Authority, for the purposes of this Article, the result of such examination.

(3.) The Local Authority shall out of the local rate pay compensation as follows for cattle slaughtered under the authority of this Article :

(a.) Where the Veterinary Inspector so specially appointed as aforesaid reports to the Local Authority that the animal was affected with pleuro-pneumonia, the compensation shall be three-fourths of its value immediately before it became so affected, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed thirty pounds.

(b.) In every other case the compensation shall be the value of the animal immediately before it was slaughtered, but so that the compensation do not in any case exceed forty pounds.

(4.) The provisions of Article 179 (Withholding of Compensation) Article 180 (Ascertainment of Value for Compensation) and of Article 181 (Record of Slaughter) of The Animals Order of 1886 shall apply to the case of cattle slaughtered under the provisions of this Article.

General Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

7.—(1.) Every Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Privy Council a copy of every Regulation made by them under the provisions of this Order.

(2.) If the Privy Council are satisfied on inquiry with respect to any Notice served or Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Production of Licences : Names and Addresses.

8.—(1.) Every person in charge of animals being moved, where, under any Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, a Movement Licence may be necessary, shall, on demand of a justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

(3.) If a person in charge of animals being moved, where under any Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

Offences.

9.—(1.) If an animal is moved in contravention of any Notice served under this Order, or of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the animal, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the animal is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2.) If an animal is exposed for sale in or at any market, fair, auction, sale-yard, sale, or exhibition in contravention of a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or of the conditions of a Licence of a Local Authority thereunder, the person holding such market, fair, auction, sale, or exhibition, and the occupier of the place where the same is held, and the owner or consignee of each animal so exposed, and the person so exposing the same, and the auctioneer, if any, or other person conducting a sale at such market, fair, auction, sale-yard, sale, or exhibition, and the person, if any, taking entrance-money or other payment for admission thereto, and the purchaser thereof of any animal so exposed in contravention of such Regulation or conditions of a Licence, such last-mentioned person or such purchaser knowing the animal to be exposed for sale in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(3.) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order allows an animal to stray he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared,

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

EASTERN ARCHIPELAGO.

JAVA.—NORTH COAST.—BATAVIA.

(1). Tanjong Priok Harbour.—Distinguishing Marks for Pilot Vessels.

THE Netherlands Government has given notice, dated 26th February, 1887, that the following distinguishing marks will be carried by the pilot vessels of Tanjong Priok Harbour, near Batavia:—

1. By day, a blue flag with T.P. in large white letters.

2. By night, the steam pilot vessel will carry a white light under a red light at the masthead; the pilot cutter will carry a red lantern light.

2. Fixed Light on Mandelike Island.

Also, has given notice that a light is now exhibited from a lighthouse erected on Mandelike Island, north coast of Java:—

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 280 feet above the sea, and should be visible seaward in clear weather from a distance of 16 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is of the fourth order.

The lighthouse, 50 feet high, is an open framework painted white.

Position on Admiralty Chart, lat. $6^{\circ} 20\frac{1}{2}'$ S., long. $110^{\circ} 55\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

By command of their Lordships,
W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
14th March, 1887.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Indian Ocean, Northern Sheet, No. 748b (2); Eastern Adchipelago, Western Portion; part I., No. 941a (2). Also, Admiralty List of Lights in South Africa, &c., 1887, No. 190; and China Sea Directory, Vol. I, 1886, page 281.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 56 of the year 1887.)

NEWFOUNDLAND—SOUTH COAST.

MIQUELON ISLANDS.

(1.) St. Pierre—Particulars of Fog Signal near Galantry Lighthouse.

THE French Government has published the following particulars of the fog-signal near Galantry Lighthouse, St. Pierre:—

The fog-signal has been shifted to the south-eastward of the lighthouse, about 30 yards from the sea, and north-westward of Chasseurs Isle.

During thick and foggy weather, and in snow storms, the steam fog-whistle will be sounded for periods of six seconds, at intervals of one minute.

This signal will be made annually from 1st March to 1st December, instead of from 15th March, as heretofore.

NEWFOUNDLAND—SOUTH-WEST COAST.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 154, of 26th August, 1885, and previous notice, on the destruction by fire of Cape Ray Lighthouse, the rebuilding of the lighthouse and exhibition of a light.

Information has been received that the light is a revolving white light, attaining its greatest brilliancy every twenty seconds. It is elevated about 130 feet above high water, and should be visible seaward in clear weather from a distance of 17 miles.

The lighthouse, 75 feet high, octagonal in shape, constructed of wood, and painted white with brown lantern, is situated 65 feet from the extremity of the cape. The keeper's dwelling, painted white with red roof, stands 192 feet southward from the lighthouse.

The fog-signal station is situated near high water mark, southward of the lighthouse.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—WEST COAST.

(3.) Miminegash—Particulars of Outer Leading Light.

With reference to Notices to Mariners, No. 278 of 24th November, 1886, on the exhibition of two leading lights at Miminegash, west coast of Prince Edward Island:—

No. 25686.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given further notice, dated 29th January, 1887, that the outer leading light which is therein stated to show red between the bearings of N.E. and S.E., defining the limits of Miminegash Reef, does not show red over the whole of that reef, the northern extremity of which is comprised within the white sector.

Vessels however should still be guided by the directions contained in the above-mentioned Notice to Mariners, as follows:—

Vessels approaching Miminegash from the southward should stand along the coast within the red sector of the outer light, and having passed through it, should bring the leading lights in line, which kept so, lead to the outer end of the North Breakwater. With offshore winds, there is good anchorage for small vessels, in 3 fathoms water, near a spar buoy about 5 cables N.N.W. from the North Breakwater.

By command of their Lordships,
W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
14th March, 1887.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Burin Harbour to Devil Bay, No. 893 (1); Miquelon Islands, with plan of St. Pierre Harbour, No. 303 (1); Newfoundland Island, No. 232a (1, 2); North Atlantic Ocean, western part, No. 2060b (2); St. John's to Halifax, No. 2666 (2); Gulf of St. Lawrence, No. 2516 (2); Cape Breton Island, No. 2727 (2); Knife Bay to Cape Anguille, No. 302 (2); Northumberland Strait, western part, No. 1747 (3). Also, Admiralty List of Lights on the Eastern Shores of North America, &c., 1887, Nos. 37, 51, 107a; Newfoundland Pilot, 1878, pages 74, 283; and St. Lawrence Pilot, Vol. II, 1881, page 93.

ENGLAND—WEST COAST.—RIVER DEE ENTRANCE.

(1.) Buoy Placed in Welsh Channel.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, dated 26th February, 1887, that a buoy has been placed in Welsh Channel, River Dee Entrance:—

The buoy (named East Hoyle), is a can buoy, painted black and white in vertical stripes, and lies in $6\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms at low water spring tides, with the following marks and bearings:—

Helbre Beach mark seen midway between two high houses at Hoylake, E. $\frac{3}{4}$ S., Southerly.

Talacre Lifeboat House in line with a small white house half way up on the back high land, S.W.

South Hoyle Buoy, N.W. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W., distant about one mile.

IRELAND—SOUTH-WEST COAST.

(2.) Dingle Harbour Entrance—Intended Fixed Red Light.

The Dingle Harbour Authorities have given notice, that on or about 1st April, 1887, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the point about half a mile N.W. by N. from Beenbane Point, east side of Dingle Harbour Entrance:—

The light is a fixed red light, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 9 miles.

Position, lat. $52^{\circ} 7' 15''$ N., long. $10^{\circ} 15' 30''$ W. [The bearings are magnetic. Variation (1.) $19\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$; (2.) $23\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$, Westerly in 1887.]

By command of their Lordships,

ENGLAND—WEST COAST.—LIVERPOOL BAY—
RIVER MERSEY ENTRANCE.

Sunken Wreck North-Westward of Bar Light-Vessel.

THE Mersey Docks and Harbour Board has given notice, that the steam vessel "Angola" lies sunk in a position dangerous to shipping, about 1½ miles N.W. by W. from Bar Light-vessel, River Mersey Entrance:—

The wreck lies in 9 fathoms water, and is marked by the steam watch-vessel "Alarm," placed near it.

NOTE.—Vessels navigating between north-west and Bar Light-vessels should give the "Alarm" a wide berth.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation 19½° Westerley in 1887.]

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
16th March, 1887.

ADRIATIC.—COAST OF ISTRIA

(2.) Cittanuova—Alteration in Position of Harbour Light, discontinuance of Red Sector.

The Austrian Government has given notice, dated 11th February, 1887, that the harbour light heretofore exhibited from the mole head at Cittanuova, Port Quieto, is now shown from the extremity of the stonework extending from that mole.

Also, that the red sector is discontinued, and that the light now shows a fixed white light, visible in clear weather from a distance of four miles in all directions.

[The bearings are magnetic, and are given from seaward. Variation $11\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$, Westerly in 1887.]

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
17th March, 1887.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—San Remo to Cape Cavalho, No. 157 (1); Leghorn Roadstead, No. 2554 (1); Port Quieto, No. 1559 (2). Metropolis Management Acts Amendment (Westminster).

(Constitution of United Vestry for Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in substitution for Westminster District Board of Works.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to introduce into the House of Commons, as soon as practicable, a Bill to amend the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, with the following objects:—

To provide that for all purposes of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and the Acts amending the same, the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, shall be considered as one parish and to constitute a United Vestry for the said parishes for the purposes of Schedule A of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855.

To repeal the provisions of the said Act relative to the Westminster District Board of Works, and to substitute such United Vestry for the said District Board.

To alter and amend the provisions of the Act 25 George II, chap. 23, as to meetings of the said Vestries of the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, and to make provisions as to the time and place of the meeting of the Vestry as reconstituted.

To make such provisions as may be incidentally necessary in consequence of substituting the said Vestry for the said District Board.

CLARK'S PATENT FOR AN IMPROVED
METHOD OF, AND APPARATUS FOR,
TRANSMITTING MOTION.

(Confirmation of Patent).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill and pass an Act for the following purposes:—

To revive, continue, and confirm certain Letters Patent, bearing date the 18th day of April, 1882, granted to Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for the term of fourteen years, for the invention of "An Improved Method of, and Apparatus for, Transmitting Motion,"—a communication from abroad by Antonio Samper, of the city of Paris, in France.

To authorize the said Letters Patent, or a duplicate thereof, to be stamped with the proper stamp showing the payment of the stamp duty thereon of £50, or in lieu thereof a renewal fee, and to be produced at the Office of the Commissioners of Patents for the said Commissioners of Patents, Comptroller-General of Patents, or their clerk to stamp such Letters Patent or duplicate, specifying the date of such production, and to endorse on such Letters Patent or duplicate a certificate of the production of the same duly stamped, and to endorse a like certificate upon the Warrant for such Letters Patent, filed in the said office.

To provide that, upon the granting of such certificate, the said Letters Patent shall be deemed to be continued and confirmed, and to be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes whatsoever as if the said stamp duty, or renewal fee, had been duly paid within the time limited by the Patents, Designs, and Trades Marks Act, 1883.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 26th day of March next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
