

of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Saviour situate at Sugley in the parish of Newburn in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Saviour situate at Sugley as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Newburn which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Saviour situate at Sugley as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Saviour, Sugley.'

"And with the like consent of the said Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of the Holy Saviour situate at Sugley as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Samuel Bucknell, Clerk in Holy Orders the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Newburn shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of the Holy Saviour situate at Sugley as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Samuel Bucknell: And provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Saviour, Sugley, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Newburn in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle which is bounded upon the south by the county of Durham and diocese of Durham, or in other words by the River Tyne, and upon the south-east partly by the new parish of Saint James Benwell situate partly in the said county of Northumberland and partly in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and wholly in the diocese of Newcastle aforesaid, and partly by the new parish of Saint Nicholas Gosforth in the said county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, upon the north-east, and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point a little to the south-east of Black House, where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Nicholas Gosforth from the parish of Newburn aforesaid crosses the middle of the Stamfordham-road, the said point being at a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the north-west of the houses called or known as Slatyford, and extending thence, that is, from the said point, north-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of one mile and a quarter or thereabouts to its intersection by Hill Head-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of one mile and three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Carlisle and Newcastle high-road and with Hope-lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of a quarter of a mile or thereabouts to its junction at Union Hall with Newburn-lane and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the Coronation and Blucher Pit Branch of the Wallbottle Wagonway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said wagonway for a distance of forty-three and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the Newburn and Lemington-road and extending thence south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts to the nearest point on the county and diocesan boundary in the middle of the said River Tyne which boundary is also the southern boundary of the parish of Newburn as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.
