

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th day of April, 1887.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

The Archbishop of Canterbury.
The Lord President.
The Marquess of Lothian.
The Bishop of London.
Mr. W. H. Smith.

THE Lords of the Council having deemed it right and proper that Prayers and Thanksgivings should be offered up to Almighty God for the protection afforded to the Queen's Majesty during Fifty years of Her auspicious reign, it is ordered by their Lordships that all Ministers and Preachers as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by an Act passed in tenth year of the reign of Queen Anne, chapter seven, be, and they are hereby, earnestly exhorted on Tuesday the twenty-first day of June next or on the ensuing Sunday, at some time during the exercise of Divine Service in their Churches, Congregations and Assemblies, to offer up Prayers and Thanksgivings to Almighty God on that behalf.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of April, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order bearing date the ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, defining a part of the Port of London as a Foreign Animals Quarantine Station: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

C. L. Peel.
