C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of July, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John situate at Cwmbach in the parish of Disserth in the county of Radnor and in the diocese of Saint Davids.

“ Whereas at certain extremities of the parish of Disserth and of the parish of Llanelwedd in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

“ And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Disserth and of the said parish of Llanelwedd should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John situate at Cwmbach as aforesaid.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the rectory of the said parish of Disserth and with the consent of Edward David Thomas of Wellfield near Builth in the county of Brecknock Esquire the patron of the said vicarage of the said parish of Llanelwedd (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Disserth and of the said parish of Llanelwedd which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John situate at Cwmbach aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Cwmbach-Llechrhyd.’

“ We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Cwmbach-Llechrhyd, being:—

“ All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Disserth and of the parish of Llanelwedd, both in the county of Radnor and in the diocese of Saint Davids, which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the chapelry of Llanfihangel Brynpabuan in the county of Brecknock and in the said diocese of Saint Davids from the parish of Llanelwedd aforesaid at the centre of Gwernyfed Ford whereby the road leading from Park Wells into the Builth and Newbridge high road crosses the River Wye and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the first-mentioned road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts thereby passing over the line of the Mid-Wales Railway to the point on the eastern side of the said line of railway where the same road joins the Builth and Newbridge high road aforesaid and extending thence south-
