Whitehall, July 29, 1887.

FURTHER List of Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, Members of the Royal Manchester, Liverpool, and North Lancashire Agricultural Society, instituted in Manchester in the year 1747, and of which Your Majesty has for upwards of twenty years been graciously pleased to act as Patron, desire, with feelings of the most profound respect, to convey to Your Majesty the assurance of our loyal and unabated attachment to Your Throne and Person, and our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the completion of the fiftieth year of Your Reign.

Your Majesty's gracious patronage, we are well aware, has not in agricultural matters been confined simply to patronising our own and kindred societies, but following in the footsteps of the late illustrious Prince Consort, who was a generous and steadfast friend to agriculture in all its various branches, Your Majesty has always been anxious and ready in every way to foster the spread of agricultural education, and to assist the many societies and institutions that exist for the promotion of what must ever be a matter of the greatest national importance.

We humbly desire to express our deep gratitude that Your Majesty's life has so long been spared to Her faithful subjects, and we pray that the vast realms over which You are called to rule may have a long continuance of that sovereignty which has endeared itself to all classes of Your Majesty's subjects.

Signed on behalf of the Council and Members of the Society,

Derby, President.

Thomas Rigby, Secretary.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Incorporated Society of Law Agents in Scotland, desire to offer our humble duty and heartfelt congratulations to Your Majesty upon the most auspicious occasion of Your completing the fiftieth year of Your Reign.

We unite with the many millions of our fellow citizens in feelings of profound thankfulness for the very many blessings which during these fifty years have attended Your Majesty's rule, and in an earnest prayer to Almighty God that He may grant Your Majesty many additional years of happiness and peace, and that as Your Majesty's reign has been prosperous beyond all precedent in the past, it may continue to be so in the future.

James Robertson, President.

In name and on behalf of the Society.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Majesty,

The President and Council of the Institution of Civil Engineers of Ireland, humbly desire to express their heartfelt joy, that, by the Providence of Almighty God, Your Majesty has reached the fiftieth anniversary of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms.

This Institution, founded two years before the accession of Your Majesty, and incorporated by Royal Charter in the forty-first year of Your Majesty's Reign, has, by means of its Members, borne a great part in the progress which has been made in engineering works throughout Ireland during Your Majesty's Reign, and it is earnestly desired that, in the near future, still greater and more rapid development of the material resources of Ireland may take place, thereby encouraging industry, and affording useful employment to the people.

That Your Majesty may witness and rejoice in the beneficial effect of such a development, is the sincere prayer of Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects.
