FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1887.

Whitehall, August 12, 1887.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, Merchants, Bankers, Shipowners, and Traders of the City of London, composing the London Chamber of Commerce (Incorporated); most respectfully desire to approach the Throne on the auspicious occasion of Your Majesty having completed the Fiftieth Year of Your Reign over the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Colonies, and Possessions, to assure Your Majesty of our fervent and unabated attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Royal Person.

Founded, as the London Chamber of Commerce is, on principles of unswerving loyalty to our Sovereign and fidelity to our Country, we rejoice to record as one of the most important features of Your beneficent and peaceful Reign, the rapid development of community of interest and feeling between outlying portions of the Empire which has latterly been taking practical shape in the development of measures of mutual defence, and for the interchange of that trade upon which the material prosperity of Your subjects, and the Power and status of Your Government, depends.

We would humbly express our satisfaction that Your Majesty has been spared to reign over the extended parts of the British Empire throughout so lengthy and prosperous a period, and we pray that Your Majesty may be preserved to rule over Your faithful subjects, and to continue the maintenance of the established institutions of the land with peace and prosperity.

May the Almighty vouchsafe to Your Majesty long and happy continuance of Your Reign over a loyal and devoted people.

L. S.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty.

WE, Your loyal and dutiful subjects, the President, Council, and Fellows of the Royal Statistical Society, humbly beg to offer to Your Most Gracious Majesty our sincere and respectful congratulations upon the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

We have reason to refer with pride to the Royal favours enjoyed in the past by this Society: first, in having had as Patron, for a period of twenty-one years, His Royal Highness the late Prince Consort, who took a great and practical interest in the Society's work, and subsequently, in having as our Honorary President, during the last fifteen years, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We would further refer, in terms of gratitude, to the Royal Charter of Incorporation that has this year been granted to the Society by Your Majesty, which will enable us to continue the pursuit of those objects of statistical and social inquiry on which we have been engaged during the past fifty years, a period co-existent with that of Your Majesty's eventful Reign.

This Reign we pray may yet be prolonged for many years.

George J. Goschen, President.

A. E. Bateman, Hon. Secy.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Council of Devonport in Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to Your Majesty our hearty congratulations on so memorable an occasion as the Fiftieth Anniversary of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne.

We, in common with all Your Majesty's faithful subjects, cannot but recognize with thankfulness to Almighty God, the blessings which have been showered on this country during Your Majesty's Reign.

Your Majesty's Jubilee is of additional interest to the inhabitants of this borough, inasmuch as the Charter of Incorporation was granted by Your Majesty a few months after Your Majesty's accession to the Throne.

We desire to express our warm sense of the deep gratitude which our country owes to Your Majesty, as its Constitutional Sovereign, as well as for the lively personal interest which Your Majesty evinces in all matters which affect the welfare and prosperity of Your subjects.

That, living in the hearts and supported by the dutiful affection and loyalty of Your people, Your Majesty may long be spared to rule over them is our fervent and heartfelt prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Council of the Borough of Devonport, this 9th day of June, 1887.

John William Walters Ryder,
Mayor.

J. J. E. Venning,
Town Clerk.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Majesty.

WE, the Commissioners of Supply for the County of Argyll, desire to offer to Your Majesty our warm and loyal congratulation on the completion of this the Fiftieth Year of Your beneficent Reign.

We gratefully recognize the inestimable advantages which have resulted to Your People from the high example of devotion to duty which You have uniformly displayed.

We fain would rejoice in the thought that, though chastened by irreparable bereavements, Your Majesty's Reign has been one of happiness to Yourself and prosperity to the vast territories You rule over.

We fervently pray that God may bless this Your Jubilee Year, and grant You many more years of health and happiness to Reign over a loyal and contented people.

Signed in name and behalf of the Commissioners of Supply of the County of Argyll, this 23rd day of June, 1887.

J. W. Malcolm, Convener.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Perth, and as representing the community thereof, beg most respectfully to offer to Your Majesty our heartiest congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

Under that Reign all the elements of national greatness have been developed to an unexampled extent throughout Your Majesty's dominions.

We rejoice to see the cordiality and unanimity with which a happy and contented people are spontaneously expressing their gratitude and thankfulness on this Jubilee occasion, and the affectionate spirit which animates Your Majesty's subjects in every quarter of the globe, eager to testify their devoted attachment to the Throne and Person of their beloved Queen.

Your Majesty's subjects regard with admiration the manner in which Your Majesty has fulfilled Your duties in every position of life, and the noble example which Your Majesty has placed before Your subjects in faithfully discharging every domestic duty and exhibiting every domestic virtue.

We pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over Your great Empire, enthroned in the affections of Your people, and sustained by Almighty power in the discharge of every duty.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto at Perth, the 18th day of June, in the year 1887.

Andrew Martin,

Lord Provost of Perth.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Members of the Ballymena Archæological Society, humbly avail ourselves of the opportunity presented by Your Majesty's Jubilee, to approach Your Majesty with dutiful congratulations and devout wishes for Your future happiness.

We venture, in commemoration of the occasion, to beg Your Majesty's gracious acceptance of the accompanying gift, which, though of small intrinsic value, is yet of historical and local interest. It is an original specimen of the early Irish arrow-heads of flint, which are frequently discovered in our neighbourhood, and is mounted in Irish gold in imitation of an arrow-head with a portion of the shaft attached, recently found in a bog near Ballymena.

We desire that it should convey to Your Majesty a sincere expression of the affectionate esteem which we feel sure is nowhere more warmly entertained towards Your Majesty than in the loyal county of Antrim.

We are, and ever shall remain, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful and devoted Servants and Subjects, the Members of the Ballymena Archæological Society,

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the States of Your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

WE, the States of the Island of Jersey, beg leave to lay at Your Majesty's feet the expression of the feelings of joy and enthusiastic loyalty which animates us on the auspicious occasion of the Fiftieth Anniversary of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne.

The inhabitants of this Island have ever pointed with pride at the unsullied record of their attachment and devotion to the Crown of England to which they so peculiarly belong; and although numerically they sink into insignificance compared with the innumerable multitudes of every race and of every clime which, on this memorable day, bow down before Your Majesty's Throne, they still venture to give expression to the hope that their heartfelt congratulations may not be displeasing to Your Majesty, coming as they do from the last fragment of the ancient Duchy of Normandy over which Your Majesty reigns.

The States would further ask leave to express their deep sense of thankfulness for the many and inestimable favours which they have enjoyed through the mildness and beneficence of Your Majesty's Government, under which the Island has been enabled to develop all its resources, and has attained a position of prosperity hardly equalled in the history of so small a community; and they would also, with deep respect, offer the tribute of their sincere admiration for the great and good example of piety and virtue which Your Majesty has during so long a reign set to all Your Majesty's subjects.

The States, however, whilst fully conscious of all the benefits which this Island has enjoyed in common with the other parts of the vast Empire of which Your Majesty is the Sovereign, cannot but bow in lowest prostration at the throne of the Almighty in acknowledgment of His providential goodness in extending Your Majesty's Reign through fifty years of peace and unexampled prosperity. We own, with profoundest gratitude, His past mercies, and earnestly entreat at His all-powerful hand a continuance of them by the prolongation of Your Majesty's life; and when it shall please the Omnipotent Ruler of the world to call Your Majesty, full of days, from a temporal to an eternal crown, may Your illustrious line, following Your bright example, reign over us in constant succession till the extinction of time.

Admiralty, August 11, 1887.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received from Captain Robert Woodward, R.N., C.B., Senior Naval Officer at Zanzibar:—

Forwarding Correspondence relative to Capture of a Slave Dhow.

H.M.S. "Turquoise," at Zanzibar, June 20, 1887.

SIR,
 I HAVE the honour to enclose herewith, correspondence with reference to the capture of an Arab dhow, and 53 slaves, by Lieutenant Frederick F. Fegen, in the pinnace of H.M. ship under my command, at Pemba, on the 30th May, and, in so doing, I beg specially to bring to your notice the most gallant and determined conduct of that officer and his boat's crew.

2. It is especially my duty to mention, that on the dhow attempting to run down the pinnace, with the intention of carrying her by boarding, Lieutenant Fegen immediately rushed forward to repel the Arabs (the dhow having caught the pinnace's forestay with her bowsprit), seven of whom were ready to board. He promptly shot two with his revolver, then drew his cutlass, and ran another through the body. Whilst thus engaged he received a very severe sword cut on the right arm from an Arab who came to assist the one he was engaged with. This Arab was run through the body by John W. Pearson, A.B., before he had time to inflict further injury. Notwithstanding his severe wounds, this Officer still continued fighting with his cutlass until the dhow got clear (at this time there were three men in the bottom of the boat wounded), the remainder of the crew, three in number, fighting hard and supporting him. When the dhow got clear nine Arabs had already been killed. No sooner had this occurred than she endeavoured to escape. Lieutenant Fegen, picking up his dingy, gave chase, and a running fight was maintained until the helmsman of the dhow was shot, when she broached to and capsized in shallow water. He immediately anchored his boat as near the sunken dhow as possible, and proceeded to rescue the slaves, the four unwounded men saving as many as they could by means of the dingy, and also jumping overboard, 53 (fifty-three) all told were saved. I am informed by Mr. Holmwood, Consul-General, that of the thirteen Arabs on board the dhow nine were the most notorious slave dealers in Pemba, and in all there were upwards of 20 armed men (the arms being Snider rifles and swords). Of the thirteen Arabs eleven have been killed, which will doubtless deal a heavy blow against the slave trade. Two Arabs succeeded in reaching the shore, one of whom died subsequently of his wounds, and the other escaped. Measures have been adopted for his capture.

3. I cannot speak too highly of the brave and gallant behaviour of Lieutenant Fegen and his crew in rushing forward, and preventing the Arabs from boarding his boat. He, in my opinion, saved annihilation. The advantage of numbers (three to one at least) and position was decidedly in favour of the dhow. He was backed up most bravely by his boat's crew; four received severe wounds, one since having died.

4. I would respectfully suggest that you will be pleased to submit for the favourable consideration of their Lordships, the conduct of Lieutenant Fegen and his boat's crew (whose names are noted in the margin*); this is not the first time that this Officer has been the subject of a special report from me.

The gallant defence made by the boat's crew makes selection invidious, but Lieutenant Fegen informs me that Frederick J. Russell and Joseph E. Greep, Leading Seamen, fought with most distinguished gallantry.

5. Surgeon W. H. Norman, of H.M.S. "Reindeer," deserves great credit for skilful surgery under trying circumstances. The patient behaviour of the wounded whilst undergoing acute suffering prior to the arrival of medical assistance, was most praiseworthy.

I have, &c.,

R. WOODWARD, Captain.

The Secretary of the Admiralty,
Whitehall, London, S.W.

A letter, of which the following is a copy, has been addressed to the Commander-in-Chief, East Indies Station, with reference to the before-mentioned Despatch:—

Sir, Admiralty, August 9, 1887.

I HAVE laid before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty a letter of the 20th June last, from the Captain of H.M.S. "Turquoise," and its enclosures, respecting the capture of an Arab dhow and 53 slaves by a boat's crew of that ship, under the command of Lieutenant F. F. Fegen, on the 30th May last.

2. My Lords consider that his conduct during the action with the dhow reflects great credit on Lieutenant Fegen and his boat's crew, and that this credit is enhanced by the determined way in which the dhow was followed up after the actual fighting was over. With a view to mark their appreciation of the officer's gallant conduct on the occasion they have promoted him to the rank of Commander, with seniority of 9th instant.

3. As regards the two seamen, Frederick J. Russell and Joseph E. Greep, who are stated by Lieutenant Fegen to have fought with most distinguished gallantry, my Lords have been pleased to decide that they shall be promoted to the rank of Warrant Officers so soon as they shall have passed the necessary qualifying examinations; the other seamen, Henry Ward, Frederick Blanchard, Thomas Hall, and John H. Pearson, A.B.'s, are to be advanced to Petty Officer ratings, if they pass the necessary examination, and if, in the opinion of the Captain of the "Turquoise," they possess the necessary qualifications; if promoted, should there be no vacancies in the complement of the ships on the station for them, they are to be borne as additional and absorbed as vacancies occur.

4. My Lords further propose that Private James J. Blyth R.M.L.I., shall be promoted to Corporal, if he is considered to be fit for the position.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) R. D. AWDRY.

Sir Frederick W. Richards, K.C.B., &c.,
East Indies.

NORTH SEA—GERMAN COAST.

Eider River Entrance—Alteration in Main Channel.

THE German Government has given notice, dated 23rd July, 1887, that from recent surveys of Eider River Entrance, the Northern Channel indicated on the chart and previously unbuoyed, is now the only one navigable by large vessels; the Southern Channel, formerly the main fairway, being now suitable for vessels of light draught only.

CAUTION.—Extensive alterations in the buoyage of Eider River Entrance being in progress to meet these changes, vessels are cautioned on no account to attempt to enter the river without a pilot.

CANADA.—RIVER ST. LAWRENCE.

(1.) Madame Reefs—Light-Buoy Marking S.W. Edge.

THE Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, dated 6th July, 1887, that the following alteration has been made in the character of the buoy marking the south-west edge of Madame Reefs, southward of the Isle of Orleans:—
The can buoy, painted red, hitherto marking the south-west edge of these reefs, has been replaced by a buoy lighted by gas.

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 10 feet above the water.

The light-buoy, painted red, is moored in a depth of 6 fathoms.

Position, lat. $46^{\circ} 55' 45''$ N., long. $70^{\circ} 50' 50''$ W.

As this buoy can only be visited at intervals, the existence of the light should not be depended upon.

NOTE.—All light-buoys are withdrawn earlier in the autumn, and replaced later in the spring than the ordinary wooden buoys. Wooden buoys mark the positions of the light buoys until the end of the season.

WEST INDIES.—CUBA.—NORTH COAST.

(2.) Havana Harbour—Additional Buoys and Beacons

Information has been received that the following additional buoys and beacons have been placed to mark certain shoals in Havana Harbour:—

1. Bajo de Feliciano, north side of the harbour, is marked by a triangular beacon, painted white.

2. Bajo de Regla, opposite the harbour entrance, is marked as follows:—

On the eastern side by a triangular beacon, painted white.

To the north-west by a buoy.

On the western side by a triangular beacon, painted white.

3. Cayo Cruz.—The banks near this cay are marked by triangular beacon, painted white.

NOTE.—The exact position of these buoys have not yet been reported. Warping buoys are moored westward of Bajo de Regla for vessels of war, and eastward of that bank for merchant vessels.

NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN.

Floating Wreck Northward of the Azores.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 191, of 26th July, 1887, on a wreck, bottom uppermost, having been seen on 2nd July, 1887, in latitude $42^{\circ} 32'$ N., longitude $31^{\circ} 40'$ W., about 170 miles N. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., from Corvo Island, Azores:—

Information has been received through the Board of Trade, that the Master of the British steam vessel "Deak" reports having passed, on 22nd July, 1887, a wreck, bottom uppermost, in latitude $44^{\circ} 11'$ N., longitude $28^{\circ} 46'$ W.

This position being about 160 miles E. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. from that reported in the above-mentioned Notice to Mariners, it is considered probable that the two reports refer to one and the same wreck.

Mariners are cautioned accordingly.
