INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Mary-without-the-Walls, situate within the Parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, in the City of Chester, for the Old Church of Saint Mary, situate within that Parish, and being the Parish Church, in the Diocese of Chester.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built at Handbridge, within the parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, in the city of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and has been consecrated and dedicated by the name of Saint Mary-without-the-Walls.

And whereas the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, as the Bishop of that diocese, and the Most Noble Hugh Lupus, Duke of Westminster, Knight of the Garter, as the patron of the benefice of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill aforesaid, and the Reverend Henry Grantham, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Incumbent of the rectory of the same benefice and parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twenty-second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill that the said new church of Saint Mary-without-the-Walls, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Mary) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said

William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and of the said Hugh Lupus, Duke of Westminster, and of the said Henry Grantham, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Mary-without-the-Walls, situate within the said parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, in the city of Chester, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Mary-without-the-Walls so hereby substituted had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary as aforesaid), of the said parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Mary-without-the-Walls (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill), and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Hugh Lupus, Duke of Westminster, and the said Henry Grantham have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.
