

the following Bye-laws shall have effect in lieu thereof.

4. Every steam vessel shall when navigating in or above Teddington Lock after sunset and before sunrise carry and exhibit the following lights, and no other or others, that is to say:—

(a.) On or before the foremast, or, if there be no foremast, on the funnel or on a staff at the bow, and in either case at a height above the hull of not less than four feet, a bright white light so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, viz.:—From right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, which said light shall in the case of a vessel registered under the provisions of the said Thames Act, 1883, as a steam launch, be behind a glass shade or slide, upon which the registered number of such vessel shall be legibly and conspicuously painted in black figures, and in the case of any other vessel with the glass perfectly plain and clear.

(b.) On the starboard side a green light, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam.

(c.) On the port side a red light, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam.

5. Every such light shall be of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least one mile.

6. The person in charge of such vessel shall be responsible for the due carrying and exhibiting of such lights, and no other light or lights.

7. Every person committing any breach of, or in any way infringing any of, these Bye-laws, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Any person desirous of making any objection to or representation respecting such proposed Bye-laws, may do so, in writing or otherwise, on or before Wednesday, the 23rd day of November next, by sending the same to, or leaving or making the same at, the offices of the said Conservators, 41, Trinity-square, Tower-hill, London.

By Order,

James H. Gough, Secretary of the Conservators of the River Thames.
