NOTICE is hereby given, that upon special recommendations from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and with the assent of the Treasury, Mr. Thomas McMahon, Mr. Patrick James Burns, and Mr. Frederick James Curtis, having served as Clerks of the Lower Division for upwards of ten years, have been promoted to the Higher Division of the Civil Service, as Assistant Surveyors of Taxes under the Inland Revenue Department, with special certificates granted exceptionally by the Civil Service Commissioners.

Civil Service Commission, October 21, 1887.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April, 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situation of Surveyor of Buildings in the Public Works Office, Ireland.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 30 and 35. Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the competitive examination.

II. Candidates will be required to show what preliminary training or technical education they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must have served for at least five years in the office of an Architect of acknowledged professional standing, and have had at least seven years' experience in designing and carrying out architectural works, three of which shall have been acquired in Ireland. Evidence on this point must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If it prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to examination, subject to such further inquiry as may be necessary.

III. The examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

PART I.—Preliminary.

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

* * * No Candidate who fails to show satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the examination.

PART II.—Competitive.

1. Drawings and Design of Architectural Works and Freehand Sketching of Architectural Subjects.
