LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, October 24, 1887.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble, Loyal, and Dutiful Address of the Kidderminster Chamber of Commerce.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-President, and Members generally of the Kidderminster Chamber of Commerce in special meeting assembled, actuated by the sincerest feelings of loyalty and attachment to Your Person and Throne, humbly and respectfully desire to offer to Your Majesty our congratulations upon the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Reign, and to express our sincere thankfulness for the material progress and prosperity which has accrued to the nation at large under Your Majesty's beneficent sway.

The chief aim of the Chambers of Commerce, which have had their origin during Your Majesty's Reign, has been to foster and encourage the continuance and development of trade and commerce, upon which the prosperity of this great country so largely depends, an object in which Your ever-lamented Consort, His Royal Highness the late Prince Albert, always took the warmest interest; and believing such associations as ours may well have Your Most Gracious Majesty's approval, we the more confidently venture to approach Your Majesty on the present auspicious occasion.

We pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to preside over the destinies of this great Empire, and that the Giver and Author of All Good may deign to grant to Your Majesty, the Royal Family, and Your faithful people, a continuance of those material and intellectual blessings which have especially distinguished Your beneficent and enlightened Reign.

Signed on behalf of the Kidderminster Chamber of Commerce, by *John H. Pearse, President.
William Hy. Smith, Vice-President.
W. M. Roden, Secretary.*

Kidderminster,
14th June, 1887.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

WE the Local Board of the town of Ventnor, in the Isle of Wight, on behalf of the inhabitants of the town and surrounding district, humbly approach Your Majesty with feelings of the greatest respect and loyalty, to offer our heartfelt congratulations on this, the fiftieth anniversary of Your Majesty's prosperous Reign.

We desire to express our deep sense of gratitude for Your Majesty's gracious kindness in commanding that our new pier shall be styled the Royal Victoria Pier, and we take this opportunity of making known our extreme regret that Your Majesty was unable to perform the opening ceremony in person.

We recognise fully the deep interest which Your Majesty, together with other members of the Royal Family, take in the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, and in the Undercliffe generally; and we therefore desire to assure Your Majesty that the inhabitants of Ventnor and the Undercliffe yield to none in their loyalty and devotion to your Throne and Person; and they humbly pray that the Almighty may long preserve Your Majesty in health, not only to guide the destinies of the nation, but that You may also be spared to honour this Garden Isle with Your gracious presence during a portion of many succeeding years.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 271 of the year 1887.)

UNITED STATES.

Storm Signals.

THE United States Government has given notice, that from 1st September, 1887, the following storm signals (consisting of day signals of two kinds, also night signals), would be shown on the shores of the Atlantic Ocean, Gulf of Mexico, and Great Lakes, as storm conditions may demand, taking into consideration the fact that westerly winds of high velocity with clearing weather are less dangerous than those from easterly quarters with freezing weather:—

1. Cautionary signal, a yellow flag with white centre will indicate the winds expected are not so severe but that well-found and seaworthy vessels can meet them without great danger.

2. Storm signal (now in use), a red flag with black centre will indicate that the storm is expected to be of more marked violence.

In order to afford as exact information as possible regarding the relative positions of the storm and the winds expected, two pendants will be displayed:—

A red pendant will indicate easterly winds from north-east to south inclusive, and that the storm centre is approaching.

A white pendant will indicate westerly winds from north to south-west inclusive, and that the storm centre has passed.

Whilst it is intended that the pendant shall indicate positively only whether the winds will be easterly or westerly, yet in order to give still more definite information the red or easterly pendant will be hoisted above the cautionary or storm signal for winds from the north-east quadrant, and below for winds from the south-east quadrant.

Also, the white or westerly pendant will be hoisted above the cautionary or storm signal for winds from the north-west quadrant, and below for winds from the south-west quadrant.

Because of the difficulty of varying night signals, they will not distinctively show the force, but indicate the direction of the wind only; a red light for easterly winds, and a red and white light for westerly winds.

Cautionary and Storm Signals.

Cautionary Signals.—Winds expected are not so severe as to be dangerous to well-found and seaworthy vessels.

White—Yellow, with white centre. North-westerly winds.

Red—Yellow, with white centre. North-easterly winds.

Yellow, with white centre—White. South-westerly winds.

Storm Signals.—Winds expected are of such a character as to be dangerous to all classes of vessels.

White—Red, with black centre. North-westerly winds.

Red—Red, with black centre. North-easterly winds.

Red, with black centre—White. South-westerly winds.

Red, with black centre—Red. South-easterly winds.

Night Signals.—Red light, Easterly winds.
