(PORT OF LONDON—ROYAL ALBERT DOCK.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th day of November, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under

The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of London as a foreign animals quarantine station (in this Order called the Quarantine Station) :

All that space situate at Gallions Wharf at the Royal Albert Dock, in the county of Essex, the property of the London and St. Katharine Docks Company, lying between Gallions Railway Station and the River Thames extending to and including the New Lock at the eastern end of the said Dock, and including so much of the roadway as lies between the water edge of the said Lock and the shed known as the Gallions Baggage Shed, and also including the said Gallions Baggage Shed.

And do hereby prescribe as follows :

1. When landed the animals shall forthwith be placed in the Gallions Baggage Shed and shall be there kept until moved thereout in accordance with the regulations contained in Article 144 of The Animals Order of 1886.

2. When and so soon as an Inspector of the Privy Council shall have certified in writing that all parts of the Quarantine Station with which the animals or their droppings have come in contact in their passage to the said Gallions Baggage Shed have been cleansed and disinfected to his satisfaction, all parts of the space above defined, other than the said Shed, shall cease to be included in the Quarantine Station, and thereupon, for the purposes of this Order, the said Gallions Baggage Shed shall alone be deemed to be the Quarantine Station hereby defined.
