

LONDON GAZETTE.

By an Order of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury which came into operation on the 1st of July, 1871, payment for Advertisements to be inserted in the London Gazette is not received in money, as formerly, but only in Stamps.

Ordinary Advertisements are charged for according to the number of words they actually contain, and must be written upon ruled and stamped forms which have been prepared for this purpose, and which may be obtained of the Firms undermentioned.
