

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the four hundred and tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas by the said Act "buoys and beacons" include all other marks and signs of the sea:

And whereas by "The Merchant Shipping (Miscellaneous) Act, 1887," it is enacted, that—

"In the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, the expression 'lighthouses' shall, in addition to the meaning assigned to it by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, include sirens, and all other descriptions of fog signals, and the expression 'new lighthouse' shall include the addition to any existing lighthouse of any improved light; or any siren, or any description of fog signal."

And whereas the Commissioners of Irish Lights have greatly improved the light heretofore exhibited from the lighthouse on Tory Island, off the coast of the County Donegal, and such improved light has been exhibited:

And whereas the said Commissioners have also erected and established in the said island, near to and in conjunction with the said light, a sign of the sea, that is to say, a siren or fog signal:

And whereas it is fit and proper that in respect of the said improvements and conveniences, and by reason of the expenditure involved, dues should be levied as hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the date of this Order in Council or from and after the time of the receipt of a copy of this Order by the officers authorized to collect light dues, there shall be paid for every ship, whether British or foreign, the toll of three-eighths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such ship for each time of passing or deriving benefit from the said lighthouse if on an over sea voyage, and one-eighth of a penny per ton if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Table of Light Duties, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables prepared in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of seventy per centum, mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

The Order in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, relating to the lighthouse on Tory Island is hereby rescinded as from the date of this Order.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael situate within the chapelry of Rampside in the parish of Dalton-in-Furness in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said chapelry of Rampside and of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid and of the chapelry of Dendron in the parish of Aldingham in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such chapelries and parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said chapelry of Rampside and of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness and of the said chapelry of Dendron in the parish of Aldingham aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael situate within the chapelry of Rampside as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness with the consent of the Reverend James Morrison Morgan, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage and as such the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry of Rampside with the consent of the Right Honourable William Henry Smith the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron in right of the Crown of the rectory of the said parish of
