

Privy Council Office, December 29, 1887.

THE following Statutes, passed on the 18th day of June, 1887, by the Governing Body of Trinity College or Hall, in the University of Cambridge, and sealed on the 26th day of November, 1887, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

STATUTES to add to, alter, and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to the College or Hall of the Holy Trinity, in the University of Cambridge, duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 18th day of June, 1887, and passed at such Meeting by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted, for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

We, the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the said College or Hall do hereby, in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act, alter and amend the Statutes framed by the said Commissioners in relation to our said College or Hall as aforesaid, in the following manner:—

By adding to Statute VIII. of the said Statutes the following words or paragraph.

For the purposes of this Statute, residence shall mean residence within such boundaries as shall be from time to time defined by grace of the Senate under Chapter 1 of the Statutes for the University of Cambridge, approved by Her Majesty in Council, on the 27th day of February, 1882.

By substituting for § 1 of Statute IX the following section to form an amended § 1 of the said Statute.

§ 1. The tenure of the Mastership shall be for life.

If a Fellow be elected or appointed to the Mastership of this, or any other College in the Universities of Cambridge or Oxford, or to a Fellowship in any such College as aforesaid, and accept such Mastership, Headship, or Fellowship, then (unless such Fellowship be Honorary) his Fellowship in this College shall become vacant from the date of such acceptance.

By altering the title of Statute X, from "Educational Staff" to "Educational Staff and Lecturers."

By substituting for § 1 of Statute X the following section, to form an amended § 1 of the said Statute.

Statute X.

Title. Amend to "Educational Staff and Lecturers."

§ 1. The Educational Staff of the College shall consist of not more than two Tutors, not more than two Assistant Tutors, a Law Lecturer, and such other Lecturers as are Fellows of the College.

By substituting for § 3 of Statute X the following section, to form an amended § 3 of the said Statute.

§ 3. The Tutors and Assistant Tutors shall be appointed by the Master. Any such appointment shall take effect for a period of three years, but on the expiration of such period the Master shall have power to re-appoint the person so appointed. Provided always that upon request, made in writing and signed by at least four of the Fellows within one month from the said appointment, if made in term, or within one month from the commencement of the following term if made out of term, the Master shall submit any such appointment or re-appointment to the Governing Body for confirmation at its next Ordinary Meeting or at a Special Meeting convened for the purpose. And thereupon the subsequent proceedings shall be as follows. If any appointment or re-appointment be not confirmed at such meeting by a majority of the Governing Body, the office shall become void from the date of the meeting, and the Master shall again make an appointment to the vacant office, subject to the confirmation of such second appointment by the Governing Body at the same meeting. If the Governing Body refuse to confirm such second appointment, they may themselves proceed to make an appointment, provided that a majority of the Governing Body concur therein; but if at such meeting no such appointment or reappointment be finally confirmed or made, the Master shall appoint or reappoint such person as he shall think fit to fill the vacant office.

Any appointment made by the Governing Body, shall take effect for a period of three years, and shall be subject to the like powers and provisions with respect to reappointment and otherwise, as are hereinbefore contained with reference to an appointment originally made by the Master.

By substituting for § 4 of Statute X the following section to form an amended § 4 of the said Statute.

§ 4. The Law Lecturer, and any such other Lecturers as the Governing Body may from time to time decide on employing, shall be appointed by the Governing Body, and shall hold office for such periods as the Governing Body may determine, provided that in cases of emergency the Master shall have power to make such temporary arrangements in respect of any Lectureship as may be necessary till the next ordinary College meeting shall be held.

Given under Common Seal, the 26th day of November, 1887.
