

Hammersmith Police Court and the Wandsworth Police Court shall be served conjointly by three Magistrates who shall be appointed to the said Courts conjointly."

And Her Majesty is further pleased by and with the advice of Her said Council to order and it is hereby ordered accordingly that this Order shall take effect on and from the second day of April; one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

And the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the Metropolis," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council to alter the number of the Police Courts, and to alter the number of Magistrates appointed to any of the said Courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the Metropolitan Police District as should be found expedient, and every such Court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed.

And whereas also by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the Powers of Justices within the Metropolitan Police District" it was amongst other things enacted "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council from time to time to constitute within the Metropolitan Police District so many Police Court Divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit and to define the extent thereof and from time to time to alter the number and extent of such Police Court Divisions, and to assign a division to each of the Police Courts already established, and to establish a Police Court for each of the other divisions.
