

together with their passengers and crews, shall be placed in quarantine, in the outer roadstead, or in the stream in the harbour, as may be ordered by the Port Physician, for a term of 18 days from the date of leaving San Francisco.

2nd. No passengers for ports other than Honolulu, shall be allowed to land.

3rd. All passengers for Honolulu shall remain in quarantine for a term of 18 days from the date of leaving San Francisco.

The place of quarantine shall be at the quarantine station, or such other place as may be designated by the Board of Health.

4th. The vessel may, upon the written consent of the Port Physician be allowed to come to an enclosed wharf for discharge of cargo.

5th. No person shall be admitted to the wharf except upon the written permit of the Board of Health.

Special attention is called to sections 15 and 16 of the Quarantine Regulations adopted October 17, 1883, hereunder appended:

"15. On the arrival of a vessel at any port of this Kingdom, coming from a port known to be infected with cholera, yellow fever, small-pox, scarlet fever, or any other contagious or infectious disease, although no case of such disease may have broken out on board during the voyage, no person shall be allowed to land from her unless a period of 18 days shall have elapsed from the time of her leaving said infected port.

"16. On the arrival of a vessel at any port of this Kingdom which has, or has had on board during the voyage, any person sick of cholera, yellow fever, small-pox, scarlet fever, or any other contagious or infectious disease, the sick persons (if passengers for that port), shall be sent to the nearest quarantine hospital for such a period as may be deemed necessary, and the vessel with all on board shall undergo quarantine if necessary, for a period of eighteen days as the Board of Health may direct, after hearing the report of the Port Physician on the said vessel.

"But with regard to all sick persons other than passengers for that port, the Board of Health will not consider itself bound to receive them or to take care of them in quarantine unless the interests of humanity may require exception to be made."

N. B. EMERSON,
