

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1888.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 9, 1888.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 17th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, (it being St. Patrick's Day), a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

THE PLEURO-PNEUMONIA SLAUGHTER ORDER OF 1888.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of March, 1888.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord President.
Duke of Richmond and Gordon.
Marquis of Lothian.
Earl of Lathom.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Slaughter of Cattle exposed to Infection of Pleuro-Pneumonia.

1.—(1.) A Local Authority shall cause all cattle being or having been in the same field, shed, or other place, or in the same herd, or otherwise in contact, with cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia to be slaughtered within ten days after the fact of their having been so in contact has been ascertained or within such further period as the Privy Council may in any case direct.

(2.) A Local Authority shall cause all cattle which have been certified by an Inspector of the Privy Council to have been in any way exposed to the infection of pleuro-pneumonia to be slaughtered within such period as the Privy Council may direct.

(3.) All cattle by this Article required to be slaughtered shall be kept in a shed or other place approved by the Privy Council and shall not be moved therefrom except for slaughter as hereinafter provided.

(4.) Every such head of cattle shall be immediately marked by clipping the hair off the end of the tail.

(5.) No cattle other than cattle dealt with under this Article shall be moved into or kept in such shed or other place so long as any cattle are
