

and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and of the new parish of Whitechapel both in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two and published in the London Gazette upon the twelfth day of July following a part of the parish of Birstal in the said county of York and in the diocese of Ripon aforesaid was assigned as a chapelry district to the consecrated church of Saint John situate within the limits of such parish and the same was called 'The Chapelry District of Saint John Cleckheaton.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-second day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-seventh day of the same month the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Saint John Cleckheaton were altered.

"And whereas by the authority of the last-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council another part of the said parish of Birstal was assigned as a chapelry district to the consecrated church at Whitechapel situate within the limits of such parish and the same was called 'The Chapelry District of Whitechapel.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight and published in the London Gazette on the seventh day of May following the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Whitechapel were altered so as to include within such district a certain specified portion of the chapelry district of Saint John Cleckheaton aforesaid.

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint John Cleckheaton has, and the said chapelry district of Whitechapel also has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and of the said new parish of Whitechapel should be further altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and of the said new parish of Whitechapel shall be altered so that there shall be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and shall be annexed to the said new parish of Whitechapel all that Cleckheaton which is described in the first schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink; and that from and after the day last aforesaid, and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order as aforesaid, the said portion of the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton so to be dissevered from such new parish shall be included within and shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Whitechapel: And also, that from and after the day last aforesaid, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and of the said new parish of Whitechapel shall be further altered so that there shall be dissevered from the said new parish of Whitechapel and shall be annexed to the new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton all that portion of the said new parish of Whitechapel which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, and that from and after the day last aforesaid, and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order as aforesaid, the said portion of the new parish of Whitechapel aforesaid so to be dissevered from such new parish shall be included within and shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The FIRST SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and to be annexed to the new parish of Whitechapel both in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton which is bounded upon part of the east by the chapelry district or new parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the north-west by the new parish of Whitechapel aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south and upon the remaining part of the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton from the new parish of Whitechapel aforesaid at the point where such boundary crosses the middle of Wickliff-lane, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts thereby passing over the line of the Cleckheaton Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway to the point on the eastern side of the said branch line of railway where the said lane joins Mount-street, and extending thence first north-westward then northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of nineteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the High-road leading from Bradford to Cleckheaton and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of half a chain or thereabouts to its junction with Law's-street and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to its present north-eastern extremity at Balm Mill Beck, that
