

is to say, to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton from the chapelry district or new parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth aforesaid.

“The SECOND SCHEDULE.

“The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Whitechapel and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton aforesaid, being :—

“All that triangular portion of the said new parish of Whitechapel which is bounded upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton and upon all other sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Whitechapel aforesaid at the hereinbefore described point where such boundary crosses the middle of Wickliff-lane aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as South-parade and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Whitechapel from the new parish of Saint John Cleckheaton aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein-mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein-mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint Juliot in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Juliot is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Reverend Richard Rawle, Bishop of Trinidad in the West Indies and his heirs and assigns.

“And whereas the said Richard Rawle is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Juliot now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Truro.

“And whereas the Right Reverend George Howard now Bishop of the said diocese of Truro is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said George Howard, Bishop of the said diocese of Truro has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas a sum of money has been paid over to us in augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Saint Juliot, but upon the understanding that the patronage of the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas under these circumstances we are of opinion that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Juliot which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say, in the parish of Saint Juliot.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Richard Rawle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said George Howard Bishop of the said diocese of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Juliot now vested in him the said Richard Rawle, and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him and them to the said George Howard, Bishop of the said diocese of Truro and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Howard, Bishop of the said diocese of Truro and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from
