(PORT OF GLASGOW.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of April, 1888.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Glasgow as a foreign animals wharf:

All that space in the port and burgh of Glasgow, being part of the wharf and depôt of the Trustees of the Clyde Navigation known as the Yorkhill Wharf, one portion of which space is situate on the south-east side of the Ferry-road, bounded by a line commencing at a point on the south-east side of the said Ferry-road where the same is intersected by the water-edge of the said Wharf; thence passing in a south-easterly direction for a distance of three hundred and seventy-seven feet six inches or thereabouts along the coping which forms the water-edge of the said Wharf; thence running north-east along a line at right angles to the said coping for a distance of fifty-four feet nine inches or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence; thence passing in a south-easterly direction along a line at right angles to the last described boundary and parallel with the said coping for a distance of one hundred and thirty-nine feet or thereabouts; thence running north-east along a line at right angles to the last described boundary for a distance of thirty-four feet or thereabouts measuring along the outside wall of a brick building; thence running north-westward along a line at right angles to the last described boundary for a distance of thirty feet or thereabouts; thence running north-eastward along a line at right angles to the last described boundary for a distance of eighty-six feet or thereabouts to a point on the south-west side of the Pointhouse-road; thence passing in a north-westerly direction for a distance of four hundred and twenty-two feet or thereabouts along the south-west boundary of the said Pointhouse-road to a point where it meets the south-east boundary of the said Ferry-road; thence south-westward along the south-east boundary of the said Ferry-road for a distance of one hundred and eighty-six feet six inches or thereabouts to the point of departure first described; and the other portion of which space is situate on the south-west side of the said Pointhouse-road, bounded by a line commencing at a point on the south-west side of the said Pointhouse-road distant eight hundred and six feet or thereabouts south-east from the junction of the said Pointhouse-road with the said Ferry-road; thence passing in a south-westerly direction at right angles to the said Pointhouse-road for a distance of one hundred and nineteen feet eleven inches or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence; thence running south-east along a wooden fence at right angles to the last described boundary for a distance of one hundred and thirty-seven feet two inches or thereabouts; thence running south-west along a wooden fence for a distance of fifty-five feet or thereabouts till it intersects the water-edge of the Wharf; thence in a south-easterly direction for a
