It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of May, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-fifth and forty-sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Militia Act, 1882," it is amongst other things enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days and not more than twenty-eight days in every year, at such times and at such places in every part of the United Kingdom, as Her Majesty may appoint, and also that Her Majesty may, from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise, in any year, of all or any part of the Militia be extended, but so that the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days.

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the 2nd Brigade, Lancashire Division, Royal Artillery (formerly the Royal Lancashire Artillery Militia), and the 6th Brigade, Scottish Division, Royal Artillery (formerly the Argyll and Bute Artillery Militia), and also of the Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, the Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, and the Southern Submarine Mining Militia, should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of the before-specified regiments and brigades of Militia shall, for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, be extended, under the provisions of the before-cited Act, from twenty-eight days to the number of days in each case hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

2nd Brigade, Lancashire Division, Royal Artillery, thirty-four (34) days.

6th Brigade, Scottish Division, Royal Artillery, thirty-four (34) days.

Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia forty-one (41) days.

Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia forty-one (41) days.

Southern Submarine Mining Militia fifty-six (56) days.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of May, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the Office of County Coroner," it was, amongst other things, enacted that when and as often as it should seem expedient to the Justices of any county that any alteration should be made of any division of such county into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act theretofore made under that Act it should be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty praying that such alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as thereafter provided:

And whereas it was by the same Act also enacted that the Clerk of the Peace should give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and that the Justices should confer with every such Coroner who should attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition; and that such petition with the reasons upon which the petition was founded should be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and that the Clerk of the Peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every Coroner for such county:

And whereas it was by the same Act further enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if She should think fit with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition and also any petition which might be presented to Her by any Coroner of the same county concerning any such proposed alteration, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid should seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the Election of Coroner for such district should be holden as thereafter provided, and that every such Order should be published in the London Gazette:

And whereas that part of the county of Middlesex for which Coroners are elected under Writs de Coronatore eligendo had been customarily divided into two districts for the purpose of holding inquests during the space of seven years and upwards before the passing of the said in part recited Act:

And whereas by an Order in Council duly made at a Court holden at Windsor on the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two under and in accordance with the said in part recited Act those parts of the said county for which Coroners are elected under Writs de Coronatore eligendo were divided into three districts for the purposes of the said Act respectively named "The Eastern District," "The Central District" and "The Western District," and such districts were by the said Order respectively to comprise the several parishes, places and boundaries in the Schedule to the said Order respectively in that behalf mentioned and set forth:

And whereas the said parts of the said county have ever since been divided accordingly:

And whereas a petition praying for the alteration of the said division by dividing the said Eastern District into two but leaving the said Western and Central Districts to continue respectively to comprise the several parishes places and boundaries aforesaid was on the third day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven presented to Her Majesty by the Justices for the county of Middlesex in General Sessions assembled which petition sets forth that by an Order made
