NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 21st day of June, 1888, cancelled the Registry of the General Funeral Society, a Friendly Society, Register No. 604, held at the Belle Vue, Tideswell, near Sheffield; in the county of Derby, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society (subject to the right of appeal given by the said Act) ceases to enjoy the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such cancelling had not taken place.

In Parliament.—Session 1888.

West Ham Corporation (Improvements).

(Petition for Additional Provision.)

(Power to Borrow Money for Defraying Extra Cost of Increasing Width of Diversion of Manor-road, West Ham, authorized by Great Eastern Railway Act, 1882, and Great Eastern Railway (General Powers) Act, 1883; Extension of Provisions of Bill as to Transfer of Jurisdiction of Commissioners of Sewers; Amendment of Acts, &c., &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the House of Commons for leave to amend the Bill now pending in that Honourable House under the above name or short title, and to make additional provision therein for effecting the purposes, or some of the purposes following, that is to say:—

To enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of West Ham, in the county of Essex (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation"); to borrow money on the security of any of their funds, rates, and revenues, and property for the purpose of defraying the extra cost of increasing the width of the diversion of the portion of the Manor-road, in the parish of West Ham, which by the Great-Eastern Railway Act, 1882, as amended by the Great Eastern Railway (General Powers) Act, 1883, the Great Eastern Railway Company were authorized to make to 40 feet instead of 30 feet, and so far as may be necessary to amend the said Acts of 1882 and 1883, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Great Eastern Railway Company or their undertaking.

To extend the provisions of Part III of the Bill to such parts of the Level, known as the West Ham Level, now under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Sewers for the Havering and other Levels as are outside the borough of West Ham, and to exempt the said parts of that level from the jurisdiction of such Commissioners, and to transfer such jurisdiction to the Corporation, and enable the Corporation to exercise within such parts of such level all or any such powers as are by the said Part III of the Bill proposed to be transferred to, and conferred upon them, within the borough, and so far as may be necessary in that behalf to alter, amend, or repeal, all or any of the provisions of the 23 Hen. VIII, cap. 5, and any other Act or Acts, Charter, or Letters Patent, relating to the aforesaid Commissioners of Sewers.

To vary or extinguish all or any rights and privileges inconsistent with such additional provision.

Dated this 22nd day of June, 1888.
