NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 175 of the year 1888.)

CHINA.—EAST COAST.

Yang-tse-Kiang—Kiu Toan Light-Vessel altered in Position, and Buoys Marking Shoal.

INFORMATION has been received from the Chinese Government, that on 29th April, 1888, in consequence of changes that had taken place in the north part of South Channel, the following alteration was made in the position of Kiu Toan Light-Vessel, Yang-tse-Kiang Entrance:—

The light-vessel now lies on the eastern side of South Channel, in $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water, with Kiu Toan Beacon bearing W. by S. $\frac{1}{2}$ S., distant $3\frac{1}{10}$ miles, and Block House Island Beacon N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. Vessels entering the river should leave this vessel on the starboard hand.

Position, lat. $31^{\circ} 17' 0''$ N., long. $121^{\circ} 47' 15''$ E.

Also, that on 28th April, 1888, the two under-mentioned buoys were moored near the south-east and north-west edges of the shoal extending south-eastward of Kiu Toan Light-Vessel, between Block House Shoal and the right bank of the river:—

1. South-East Buoy, painted red and black in vertical stripes, and surmounted by a diamond-shaped cage, lies on the western side of South Channel, in 3 fathoms water, with Clump of Trees bearing W.S.W., and House Island Beacon N. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. Entering the river this buoy should be left on the port hand.

2. North-West Buoy, painted red and black in vertical stripes, and surmounted by a triangular cage, lies on the western side of South Channel, in 3 fathoms water, with Kiu Toan Light-Vessel (present position) bearing E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N., distant one mile, and Block House Island Beacon N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. Entering the river this buoy should be left on the port hand.

CAUTION.—From a recent examination of this part of the river by the local authorities, the channels and banks have been found to have undergone considerable change since the survey of 1886. Mariners should therefore act with caution.

The depths given are at low water spring tides. [The bearings are magnetic. Variation $2\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1888.]

MEDITERRANEAN.—GULF OF TUNIS.

(1.) Fixed Red Light with Green Sector on Piana Islet.

INFORMATION has been received, that during the last fortnight of the month of June, 1888, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Piana Islet, western side of entrance to Gulf of Tunis:—

The light is a fixed red light, with sector of green light; it is elevated 65 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of ten miles. The sector of green light is 40° in extent, covering to the northward Pilau

Islet, and to the southward the shoals with less depths than $5\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms, in Cape Farina anchorage, or between the bearings of E. by N. and S.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. (approximate).

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses, of the fourth order.

The lighthouse, 39 feet high, consists of a square tower above a square building.

Position on Admiralty charts, lat. $37^{\circ} 10' 50''$ N., long. $10^{\circ} 20' 10''$ E.

BONIFACIO STRAIT—SARDINIA.

(2.) Tre Monti Shoal—Buoy withdrawn; Beacons on Cape Orso.

Also, that the white buoy of Tre Monti Shoal, at the entrance to Arsachena and Saline Gulfs, has been withdrawn; and that two beacons have been erected on Cape Orso, which, kept in line, lead well northward of Tre Monti Shoal, and a short distance southward of the white buoy marking Rossa Point Shoal, near the south extreme of Caprera Island.

The beacons, pyramidal in shape, and white in colour, are situated—the eastern, near the coast on the east side and a little southward of Cape Orso; the western, on the steep slope of the cape.

NOTE.—In clear weather, these beacons may be seen from the eastern entrance of the strait between Cape Ferro and Biscie Island. The western beacon is visible throughout the strait westward of Cape Orso.

RED SEA—STRAIT OF JUBAL.

(3.) Shadwan Island—Position of Intended Lighthouse.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 154 (2), of 4th June, 1888, on the intended exhibition of a revolving red and white light from a lighthouse about to be erected by the Egyptian Government on the Shadwan Island, western side of southern entrance to the Strait of Jubal:—

Further information has been received from the Egyptian Government, that the lighthouse will be situated near the eastern extreme of Shadwan Island, in lat. $27^{\circ} 26' 55''$ N., long. $34^{\circ} 2' 20''$ E.

Further particulars concerning the light will be published in due course.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Kingsclere, in the county of Southampton, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Crown Inn, in Kingsclere, on Friday, the 27th day of July, 1888, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Kingsclere, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Chas. Keith-Falconer.

Sidney F. Osborne.

Inland Revenue, London, June 30, 1888.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of East North, in the county of Cornwall, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at Madford Office, Exeter-street, Launceston, on Saturday, the 14th day of July, 1888, at four o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of East North aforesaid.

Nottingham Suburban Railway (Deviation).

Certificate of the Board of Trade for the Construction of a Deviation Railway.

WHEREAS the Nottingham Suburban Railway Company incorporated by the Nottingham Suburban Railway Act, 1886, as promoters, and for the purpose of constructing the deviation railway hereinafter described, have contracted to purchase the lands required for such deviation railway and works in connection therewith, and have complied with the requirements of the Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864, and the Railways (Powers and Construction) Acts, 1864, Amendment Act, 1870:

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Certificate, in pursuance of the said Acts, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Certificate may be cited as the "Nottingham Suburban Railway (Deviation) Certificate, 1888.

Interpretation.

2. In this Certificate the expression "the Company" means the Nottingham Suburban Railway Company, and the expression "the Act of 1886" means the Nottingham Suburban Railway Act, 1886.

Power to construct Deviation Railway.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Certificate the Company may on the lands contracted to be purchased by them as aforesaid, make and maintain the deviation railway, shown on the amended plans and sections, signed by Courtenay Boyle, Assistant Secretary (Railway Department), Board of Trade, and deposited in respect of the application for this Certificate in the lines and according to the levels shown on such plans and sections, with all proper stations, sidings, approaches, works, and conveniences connected therewith:

The deviation railway authorized in this certificate will be situate wholly in the parish of Sneinton, in the town and county of the town of Nottingham, and commence by junctions with the up and down lines of the Nottingham and Grantham Line of the Great Northern Railway, at points respectively three chains or thereabouts in an easterly direction and eight chains or thereabouts in a westerly direction measured along that line from the centre of the bridge carrying the said Nottingham and Grantham Line over Trent-lane, and terminating by a junction with Railway No. 1 authorized by the Nottingham Suburban Railway Act, 1886, at a point three chains or thereabouts measured in a southerly direction along that railway from the road, numbered on the deposited plans referred to in the Act of 1886, 34 in the parish of Sneinton, at the point where that railway crosses such road.

Time for Completion.

4. If the deviation railway is not completed within three years from the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, then, on the expiration of that period, the powers by this Certificate granted to the Company for making and completing the same, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised except as to so much thereof as is then completed.

Tolls.

5. The deviation railway by this Certificate authorized shall for all purposes, including the levying of tolls and charges, and the working and traffic agreements authorized by the Act of 1886, be deemed to be part of the railways of the Company authorized by that Act.

Agreement with Great Northern Railway Company to apply to Deviation.

6. The provisions of the agreement between the Promoters of the Nottingham Suburban Railway Company of the one part, and the Great Northern Railway Company of the other part, scheduled to and confirmed by the Nottingham Suburban Railway Act, 1886, shall apply to the deviation railway hereby authorized in all respects as if the said deviation railway had been authorized by the Act of 1886, and had been one of the railways referred to and described in the said agreement.

Application of Funds.

7. The Company may apply for any of the purposes of this Certificate any money which they are authorized to raise under the said Act, whether by shares, stock, debenture stock, or borrowing.

Abandonment of Portion of Railway for which Deviation substituted.

8. The Company shall abandon the construction of so much of the Railway No. 1 authorized by the Act of 1886 as was proposed to be situate between its commencement and the point of the junction therewith of the said deviation railway, and will be rendered unnecessary by the construction of such deviation railway.

Owners, &c., not to be affected by abandonment.

9. The abandonment by the Company, under the authority of this Certificate, of any portion of the said railway shall not prejudice or affect the right of the owner or occupier of any lands to receive compensation for any damage occasioned by the entry of the Company on such land for the purpose of surveying and taking levels or probing or boring to ascertain the nature of the soil or setting out the line of railway, and shall not prejudice or affect the right of the owner or occupier of any land which may have been temporarily occupied by the Company to receive compensation in accordance with the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for such temporary occupation, or for any loss, damage, or injury which may have been sustained by such owner or occupier by reason thereof, or of the exercise as regards such lands, of any of the powers of the Company.

Contract to remain in force.

10. Where, before the passing of this Certificate, any contract may have been entered into or notice given by the Company for the purchasing of any land for the purposes of or in relation to the said portion of railway authorized to be abandoned by this Certificate the Company shall be released from all liability to purchase or to complete the purchase of any such lands, but notwithstanding full compensation shall be made by the Company to the owners and occupiers or other persons interested in such lands for all injury or damage sustained by them respectively by reason of the purchase not being completed pursuant to the contract or notice, and the amount and application of the compensation shall be determined in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as amended by any subsequent Act for determining the amount and application of compensation paid for lands taken under the provisions thereof.

Provision as to General Acts.

11. Nothing in this Certificate contained shall exempt the Company or the railway from the provisions of any general Act relating to railways or the better or more impartial audit of the accounts of Railway Companies now in force, or which may hereafter pass during this or any future Session of Parliament, or from any future revision or alteration under the authority of Parliament of the maximum rates of fares and charges, or of the rates for small parcels.

Costs.

12. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the preparing for obtaining and passing of this Certificate, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.

Dated this 28th day of June, 1888.
