NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 204 of the year 1888.)

WEST INDIES—GULF OF MEXICO.

Vera Cruz—Harbour Works in North-West Channel.

INFORMATION has been received, that in connection with the construction of the mole of the new harbour at Vera Cruz, large blocks of stone have been sunk in the north-west channel; and consequently mariners should not use this channel on account of the continual decrease in the depth of water.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

23rd July, 1888.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Plans:—Approaches to Vera Cruz, No. 2854; Port of Vera Cruz, No. 523. Also, West India Pilot, Vol. I, 1883, page 413.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, July 26, 1888.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the prize money awarded for the slave dhow, name unknown, and two slaves, slave dhow, name unknown, and one slave, slave dhow, name unknown, slave dhow, name unknown, and slave dhow "Silfa," and twenty-one slaves, captured on the 21st and 26th October, and 7th, 12th, and

19th November, 1887, respectively, by Her Majesty's ship "Kingfisher."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the Admiralty Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Ipplepen, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and the messuage or dwelling-house and other buildings thereon, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and the messuage or dwelling-house and other buildings thereon, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said piece or parcel of land and the messuage or dwelling-house and other buildings thereon, expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be and be taken to be in lieu of, and in substitution for, a portion, amounting to five pounds per annum, of the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and sixty-nine pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Ipplepen, under the authority of an instrument, sealed by us on the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of the same month: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Ipplepen shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and the messuage or dwelling-house and other buildings thereon, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.
