Education Department, Whitehall,
October 4, 1888.

THE Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education have issued an order this day for the formation of a School Board in the undermentioned Parish:—

Somerton Somerset

(H. 6265.)

Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, October 4, 1888.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch, dated 25th ultimo, from Her Majesty's Representative at Copenhagen, enclosing the following copy of a Notice recently issued respecting quarantine in Denmark:—

Notice of the withdrawal of the Notice of the Minister of Justice of May 19th last.

The general inspection in accordance with the Law of July 2, 1880, 2nd paragraph, I, of ships arriving from Grimsby, which was ordered by the Notice of the Minister of Justice of May 19th last, as well as the prohibition contained in the aforesaid Notice of the Minister of Justice of the importation of the articles named in paragraph 32 of the law, are hereby withdrawn.

There will accordingly be no quarantine.

The provisions contained in the 2nd paragraph, I, of the Law of the 2nd July, 1880, to guard against the introduction of infectious diseases into the Kingdom, are accordingly in force with regard to the following places:—

Ports on the French coast between Nantes and St. Malo, both inclusive; Egersund, all ports in Chili, Florida, Jamaica, Martinique, Guadeloupe, St. Jago de Cuba, ports in the East Indies, Tonquin, and Cochin China, Trieste, all Egyptian sea ports, ports on the Red Sea, Rio de Janeiro, and Havana.

The prohibition of the importation into the kingdom of used linen, worn clothes, and used bed clothes, unless the articles named form part of the luggage of travellers, rags, used wadding, wool cardings, waste paper, hair and hides, remains in force against the following places:—

Ports on the French Coast between Nantes and St. Malo, both inclusive; Egersund, all ports in Florida, Jamaica, Martinique, Guadeloupe, and St. Jago de Cuba, all ports in the East Indies, Tonquin and Cochin China, and all ports in Chili.

The prohibition of the importation into the kingdom of used linen, worn clothes, and used bed clothes, in so far as these articles are not part of the luggage of travellers, remains in force as regards Rio de Janeiro and Havana. The cleansing under official supervision of linen articles of clothing and bed clothes brought from either of these two places in the luggage of travellers, is besides particularly ordered.

These provisions come into force from and after the 13th of September.
