Board of Trade.—Session 1889.

Melton Mowbray Gas.

(Application to the Board of Trade by the Melton Mowbray Gas Light and Coke Company Limited for a Provisional Order under the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, for Powers to Maintain and Continue Gas Works; to Manufacture and Supply Gas within the Parishes of Melton Mowbray and Thorpe Arnold, in the county of Leicester; Supply of Gas Meters, Fittings, Stoves, Apparatus, &c.; Opening of Streets and Roads; Patent Rights; Agreements with Local Authorities; Rates and Charges; Additional Capital.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Melton Mowbray Gas Light and Coke Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company"), intend to apply to the Board of Trade, pursuant to the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, for a Provisional Order to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing session, for the following purposes, or some of them, that is to say:—

To empower the Company to maintain and continue, and from time to time alter, enlarge, and renew their present gas works and works connected therewith for the manufacture, distribution, and storing of gas and of coke and other residual products arising in the manufacture of gas and matters producible therefrom on certain lands now belonging to and in the occupation of the Company, situate in the parish of Melton Mowbray, in the county of Leicester, bounded on or towards the east in part by a strip of land belonging to the Company and used as a road, and known as Gas-lane, and partly by pasture land and hereditaments belonging jointly to William Giles and Henry Wood and George Rose, on or towards the south by a stream of water known as Scafford Brook, on or towards the west in part by the said stream and in other part by land and hereditaments belonging to Joseph Tom Firbank, and on or towards the north in part by a garden, plantation, and hereditaments belonging to Joseph Tom Firbank, and in other part by cottages, gardens, and hereditaments belonging to John Jones East. The said strip of land runs from a public highway known as Southern-lane to the gas works, and such strip is bounded on the east by land belonging to the said William Giles and Henry Wood and George Rose:

To empower the Company to make and store

gas in and upon the said lands, and to supply and sell gas within the parishes of Melton Mowbray and Thorpe Arnold, in the county of Leicester:

To enable the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire and sell, or let on hire, and contract for work in connection with gas engines, gas stoves, meters, fittings, and apparatus of every description in which gas is used as a motive, lighting, or heating power, or which are in any way connected with gasworks, or the storage, use, or supply of gas, and whether for public or private purposes, and to take payment and remuneration in respect thereof:

To authorize the Company, so far as may be necessary, to enable them to furnish a supply of gas within their limits, to open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets, roads, highways, lanes, bridges, and other public and private passages and places within the said parish, and remove, divert, or alter any sewers, drains, and pipes in, over, or under the same, and to lay down, extend, repair, and maintain any mains, service-pipes, valves, syphons, and other works connected with or incidental to the supply of gas:

To authorize the Company to acquire and hold patent rights and licenses in relation to the manufacture or distribution of gas, and the utilization of the residual products obtainable therefrom, or the production of artificial light:

To authorize the Company, on the one hand, and any Company, local board or urban or rural sanitary authority or town wardens within the said parishes to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements for a supply of gas in bulk, or otherwise, for lighting, and for supplying all fittings and other things, and for performing all acts incidental to lighting any public streets, places, or buildings. The Order will preserve and confirm existing leases, contracts, and agreements between the Company and any other body or persons:

To levy and recover rates, rents, and charges for the supply of gas and residual products, and for the supply, hire, or use of meters, fittings, stoves, engines, and other apparatus, articles, and things supplied by the Company:

To enable the Company to convert their existing share capital into stock in such manner as may be defined by the Order:

To authorize the Company to raise additional capital by ordinary or preference shares or stock, and by borrowing on mortgage, or by the creation and issue of debenture stock:

The intended Order will incorporate and apply to mains, pipes, and works of the Company, and to any extension thereof, the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which might interfere with any of the objects of the Order, and confer other rights and privileges:

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant a map, showing the lands occupied by the existing gasworks, and used for the manufacture and storage of gas and residual products, and a copy of this notice will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London, and also for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Leicester, at his office at Leicester:

On or before the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the before-mentioned office of the Board of Trade, and on and after that date copies will be supplied at the price of one shilling each to all persons applying for the same at the office of the Solicitor of the Company (Mr. James
