Taunton Corporation Loans.

(Consolidation of Loans; Creation and Issue of Corporation Stock; Provisions with reference thereto; Further Borrowing Powers; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Taunton, in the county of Somerset (hereinafter called "the Corporation") for an Act for all or some of the following objects and purposes, that is to say:—

To authorise and provide for the consolidation and conversion into stock of all or any, or some part or parts, of the loans of the Corporation, whether already or hereafter authorised to be contracted by the Corporation under the powers of the intended or any other Act of Parliament, or of the order or sanction of any public department, and for those purposes to enable them to create and issue consolidated Corporation or other stock, perpetual or otherwise, upon and subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed or authorised by the intended Act.

To empower the Corporation to raise, by the creation and issue of any such stock, the whole or any part of any moneys which they now are, or may hereafter be authorised to raise as aforesaid.

To make provision for and in relation to the repayment of moneys borrowed and to be borrowed, and the redemption of any stock so created as aforesaid, and as to sinking funds and their investment, and, if thought fit, to alter existing provisions in relation to those several matters.

To make provision with respect to the issue and transfer of and the payment of interest upon the said stock, and for the keeping of all or any registers, books of accounts, and documents of or in relation thereto, and to authorise arrangements in that behalf with the Bank of England or any other bank.

To authorise the investment of trust funds in such stock, and to exempt the Corporation from liability in respect of notice of any trust affecting such stock, and to empower any incapacitated or other person to accept such stock in lieu of any other security held by him.

To charge the said stock upon the funds, revenues, rates, duties, estates, lands, and property of the Corporation, and other the securities upon which the Corporation are or may be authorised to raise money, or upon some of them.

To empower the Corporation to borrow further moneys for sewerage and waterworks, or other purposes, on the security of their borough fund and borough rate, and district fund and general district rate, and their waterworks revenue, and any other property, rates, or revenue belonging to them or under their control, and to provide for the application of such moneys and to extend to such moneys some or all of the provisions of the intended Act.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and to confer upon the Corporation all such other rights and privileges as may be necessary for any purposes of the intended Act.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1888.

London Coal and Wine Duties.

(Application of Surplus.)

(Application of Surplus of the London Coal and Wine Duties raised or to be raised under the provisions of the London Coal and Wine Duties Continuance Act, 1868 (31 Vict., cap. 17); Amendment of Acts, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the Session of 1889 for leave to bring in a Bill relating to the surplus of the London coal and wine duties raised or to be raised under the provisions of The London Coal and Wine Duties Continuance Act, 1868, hereinafter called the Act of 1868, or any other Act or Acts, and the said Bill is intended to contain the following powers, or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To appoint and incorporate a body of trustees, or some other body or persons, and to provide for their permanent or temporary duration for carrying such powers into effect.

2. To vest in such trustees, or in the London County Council, or in such other body or persons as the Bill may prescribe, hereinafter called "The Trustees," the whole or some portion of the said surplus of the London coal and wine duties raised or to be raised under the powers of the Act of 1868, and if need be to enable The Trustees to exercise and enforce the provisions of the Act of 1868.

3. To enable or direct The Trustees to administer such surplus or some portion thereof, and to appropriate and apply the proceeds thereof, and any other monies which may come to their hands by gifts or otherwise, in the purchase of lands, rights, and easements, and for providing the expenses of erecting a Monumental Chapel or other buildings in proximity of or contiguous to Westminster Abbey, the preservation of open spaces within or near to the metropolis, and generally to apply such surplus or portion thereof and other monies in or towards one-half the expenses of such Monumental Chapel and other works, public buildings, and improvements within the metropolis, as defined by the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, or within the area of the Metropolitan Police District, or such objects as will be named in the said Bill, or as Parliament shall direct; the other one-half part of the expenses to be incurred in or about such works, public buildings, and improvements being provided from other sources.
