Board of Trade—Session 1889.

Llandrindod Wells Water.

(Application to the Board of Trade under "Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870," for Provisional Order to authorise the raising of additional capital).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Llandrindod Wells Water Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") intend to apply on or before the 23rd day of December next to the Board of Trade, pursuant to the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, for a Provisional

Order, to be confirmed by Parliament in the next session, for the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorise the Company to raise additional capital for the purposes of their undertaking by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, and by borrowing on mortgage, or by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by any of such means, and to attach to any new shares or stock mortgages or debenture stock such preference or priority in the payment of dividends and interest, and other rights and privileges as the intended Order may define.

The intended Order will incorporate all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869, and amend and enlarge the provisions of the Llandrindod Wells Water Act, 1884, and confer upon the Company all necessary powers for carrying into effect the purposes of the Order, and vary or extinguish any rights or privileges which would impede or interfere with such purposes, and confer other rights and privileges.

A copy of this advertisement, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Radnor at his office at Presteign, and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Printed copies of the draft Provisional Order can be obtained on and after the 23rd day of December next, at the offices of the undersigned Solicitor and Parliamentary Agent, and printed copies of the Provisional Order, when settled and made by the Board of Trade, can also be obtained at the same offices at the price of one shilling per copy.

Every Company Corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, on or before the 15th day of January, 1889, and copies of their objections must at the same time be sent to Mr. Powell Price, Solicitor, or to William Bell, 27, Great George-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agent for the Company, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections the objectors, or their Agents, should state that a copy has been sent to the said Solicitor or Agent for the Company.

Dated this 20th day of November, 1888.

The history of the world is a vast and complex subject, encompassing the lives and actions of countless individuals and the events that have shaped our planet. From the dawn of civilization to the present day, the human story is one of constant change and evolution. The early days of our species are shrouded in mystery, but as we move forward, we see the rise of great empires, the birth of new cultures, and the development of science and technology. Each era has its own unique challenges and triumphs, and the interactions between different societies have shaped the world as we know it today. The study of history allows us to understand the roots of our current problems and the potential for a better future.
