

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1889:

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 1, 1889.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 12th of April (instead of Thursday, the 11th, as previously announced), at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS
TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

(PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.)

Registration of Births and Deaths.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of the provisions of the twenty-first section of an Act passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "The Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874," I, Sir Brydges Powell Henniker, Bart., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, have, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, ordered and declared that on and after the 1st day of May next, the Sub-Districts of "Tenbury" and "Bockleton," in the Tenbury Registration District, shall be united, and shall constitute one Sub-District, to be called the "Tenbury" Sub-District.—Witness my hand this 4th day of April, 1889.

Brydges P. Henniker, Registrar-General.
General Register Office,
Somerset House, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 3rd day of April, 1889, suspended for two months the Registry of the Glenfield Male Friendly Society, Register No. 740, held at the Infant Schoolroom, Glenfield, Leicester, in the county of Leicester, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy during such suspension the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar.

In Parliament.—Session 1889.

Tees Conservancy.

Petition for Additional Provision.

(Deviation of Portion of Line of Authorized Tees-side Railway; Powers to the Commissioners of Woods and Forests to transfer portions of Reclaimed Lands to Tees Conservancy Commissioners; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament by the Tees Conservancy Commissioners (hereinafter called "the Commissioners"), by way of petition for additional provision, for the insertion in the Bill now pending in the House of Commons under the above name or short title, and intituled

"A Bill for conferring further powers on the Tees Conservancy Commissioners with respect to the sale or leasing of reclaimed lands and minerals, for amending the Tees Conservancy Acts, and for other purposes," of clauses and amendments (subject to such alterations and conditions as Parliament may require) for authorizing the deviation of the line of the Tees-side Railway, as authorized to be constructed by the Tees Conservancy Act, 1875, between the point 2 miles 6 furlongs $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured along the centre line of the railway as laid down upon the deposited plans thereof from its commencement and the authorized termination thereof; and for abandoning the construction of that portion of the authorized railway, which said deviation will be situate in the parishes of Billingham, Greatham, and Stranton, in the county of Durham, on lands which have been reclaimed by the Commissioners from the River Tees, or on such portions of the reclaimed lands as have been retained or reserved by the Commissioners of Woods and Forests for roads and railways under the Tees Conservancy Acts, 1852 to 1887, and on ancient enclosed lands adjacent thereto; and to authorize the Commissioners to acquire by agreement the lands required for such deviation; and to enable the Commissioners of Woods and Forests, notwithstanding anything contained in the Tees Conservancy Act, 1858, or in any other enactment, to transfer to the Commissioners the lands required for constructing the said deviation on such terms and conditions as may have been or may be hereafter agreed upon between the said Commissioners, respectively in that behalf, and so far as may be necessary for effecting the aforesaid purposes, to alter, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of the said Acts.

And take notice, that a plan and section (in duplicate) of the proposed deviation, the plans also showing the lands which will be required for making the said deviation, and a book of reference to the plans, together with a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 12th day of April, 1889, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, at his office in the city of Durham, and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plan and section and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the said deviation will be made or pass, with a copy of this notice, published as aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence. A copy of the proposed clauses and amendments for effecting the purposes aforesaid will be annexed to the said petition.

Dated this 29th day of March, 1889.

In Parliament.—Session 1889.

Great Northern Railway.

(Alteration of Works.)

(Alteration of Site of proposed Railway No. 9 to be constructed in the Township of Wortley, in the Parish of Leeds.)

THE Great Northern Railway Company (hereinafter referred to as the Company) intend to apply to Parliament for leave to make an alteration in the site of one of the railways at Leeds, described in the Bill of the Company (now pending in the House of Lords, under the short title of "Great Northern Railway") as Railway No. 9, and proposed to be constructed wholly in the township of Wortley, in the parish of Leeds, in the West Riding of Yorkshire. The following is the description of the said railway as it is now proposed to alter the same, namely:—

A Railway No. 9, wholly in the township of Wortley, commencing by a junction with the railway in the said Bill described as Railway No. 8 at a point therein about 27 yards from the north-east end of the south-east side of Brunel-street measured in a line with the said south-east side of Brunel-street, and terminating at a point about 120 yards measured in a north-westerly direction from the north-east end of the south-west side of Brunel-place, and about 141 yards measured in a south-westerly direction at right angles to the Leeds and Liverpool Canal.

The several powers and provisions of the Bill applicable to the construction of the Railway No. 9 as therein described, will be made applicable to the Railway No. 9 as proposed to be altered, including the power to purchase and acquire compulsorily, and by agreement, lands, houses, and property.

Duplicate plans and sections showing the line and levels of the proposed new or substituted work, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees and occupiers of the lands to be taken for the purposes of the said work, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 6th day of April instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York, at his office, at Wakefield, with the parish clerk of Leeds, at his residence, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated the 4th day of April, 1889.
