

Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, April 26, 1889.

THE following Address from the Mayor and Corporation of King's Lynn, to the Queen, was presented by the Mayor, on the 23rd April, 1889, to Her Majesty, when passing through the Town on the occasion of Her Majesty's Visit to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at Sandringham:—

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of King's Lynn, in the county of Norfolk, in Council assembled—

Desire humbly to approach Your Majesty on the occasion of Your Majesty passing through our ancient borough, with the renewal of the assurance of our continued loyalty to Your Majesty and attachment to Your Throne, and to welcome Your Majesty's visit to our county. We beg to assure Your Majesty that it has been a source both of pride and of much pleasure to the people of King's Lynn that their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales have been pleased to take up their abode in the immediate vicinity of the borough, and to identify themselves, as their Royal Highnesses have so unceasingly done, with all its local interests.

We look back with thankfulness upon the great blessings which the Nation has received under Your Majesty's wise and beneficent reign, and we humbly pray that Your Gracious Majesty may long be spared to rule over your devoted and loyal subjects.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, this 16th day of April, 1889.

G. G. Sadler, Mayor,
T. G. Archer, Town Clerk.

To which Her Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious answer:—

"I receive with pleasure your loyal and dutiful Address on the occasion of My passing through your ancient Borough on My way to visit My dear Son the Prince of Wales and his Family, who have so long resided in your neighbourhood.

"I thank you sincerely for the kind words with which you have greeted my arrival in West Norfolk, and I heartily pray for the success and prosperity of my faithful subjects of King's Lynn."

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of April, 1889.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The provisions of Article 73 (Swine-Fever Infected Circle) of The Animals Order of 1886, as amended by Article 2 of The Animals (Amendment) Order of 1888, No. 2, shall apply and extend to and be in force in the District mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, and shall continue to apply and extend to and be in force in that District until the Privy Council by further Special Order direct and order; and the Order of Council dated the sixteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, which applies the said provisions to certain Districts therein named, shall be read and have effect as if the District named in the Schedule to this Order was also named in that Order.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
