

THE ARTILLERY AND RIFLE RANGES
ACT, 1885.

BYE-LAWS made by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, with the consent of the Board of Trade:—

WARDEN POINT BATTERY AND HURST
CASTLE ARTILLERY PRACTICE RANGES.

1. Whilst gun practice is going on from Warden Point Battery or from Hurst Castle no ship, boat, barge, craft, or other vessel of any description shall, unless compelled so to do by the exigencies of navigation, be allowed to ground, anchor, or remain within the area contained by the following lines, viz.:—

From Warden Point Battery westward through the Elbow Buoy to the three-fathom patch of the Dolphin Bank.

From the said three-fathom patch of the Dolphin Bank north by east to the shore of the mainland opposite Taddiford Farm.

From Warden Point Battery in a north-west direction through Warden Ledge Buoy till it meets the shore of the mainland opposite Milford Church.

This area includes within it the shifting bank of shingle which is situated about fourteen cables west by north of Warden Point Battery and twelve cables south-west of Hurst Castle.

2. The signal that gun practice is going on shall be a red flag hoisted at either the Warden Point Battery or Hurst Fort.

3. The Officer Commanding the Royal Artillery, Western Forts, or the Commandant of the Practice Camp, or any officer for the time being under their command, shall have power and is hereby authorized—

(a.) To take into custody without warrant and bring before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, as mentioned in the Act, to be dealt with according to law, any person contravening Bye-law No. 1 aforesaid.

(b.) To remove from the area defined by Bye-law No. 1 any person, vessel, or thing found therein in contravention of that Bye-law.

4. Any person contravening Bye-law No. 1 shall be deemed to commit an offence against the same, and is under the Act liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Dated this 2nd day of April, 1889.

Edward Stanhope,

Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department.

The Board of Trade hereby signify their consent to the foregoing Bye-laws.
