

population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Saint Anne Wandsworth and of the parish of Battersea should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary Magdalene Wandsworth Common situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester as such Bishop, and with the consent of Elizabeth Du Buisson of Heathfield Wandsworth Common in the said county of Surrey Spinster as the patron for the next turn of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Anne Wandsworth and with the consent of the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of Rochester as the patron (after the next turn) in right of his see of the vicarage of the same parish and with the consent of the Right Honourable John Peyntz Earl Spencer Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Battersea (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Anne Wandsworth and of the parish of Battersea aforesaid which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mary Magdalene Wandsworth Common situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary Magdalene, Wandsworth Common.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary Magdalene Wandsworth Common being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Anne Wandsworth and also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Battersea wherein the present incumbents of those parishes still respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls both in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the centre of the bridge which carries Trinity-road over the main line of the London and South-Western Railway and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western angle of the grounds now in the possession of the Commissioners of the Royal Patriotic Fund and their tenant and extending thence north-eastward along the wall or fence which divides the said grounds from Wandsworth Common for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundaries of the said parish of Saint Anne Wandsworth of the new parish of Saint Michael Wandsworth Common Battersea in the county and diocese aforesaid and of the parish of Battersea aforesaid all meet, and continuing thence in the same direction that is to say still north eastward along the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael Wandsworth Common Battersea from the parish of Battersea aforesaid for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby continuing to follow the said wall or fence) to a point in the middle of the down line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said down line of railway for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts, thereby passing through the Wandsworth Common Station, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Battersea from the new parish of Upper Tooting in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the last described boundary for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts, thereby following, in the last-mentioned direction, the course of a private lane which leads from the house called or known as the Boundaries into Saint James's-road, to the point where the same boundary bends sharply towards the south, and extending thence still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Saint James's-road aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Trinity-road aforesaid, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Crockerton-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last named road for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts, thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Battersea from the parish of Saint Anne Wandsworth aforesaid, to the present south-western end of the same road and continuing thence still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Beechcroft-road and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with Burntwood-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the south-western angle of the grounds attached to the house called or known as Burntwood Grange, and extending thence north-westward to and along the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the last described grounds for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a point at the north-western angle of the same grounds and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Magdalen-road where it is joined by the roadway forming the entrance to Wandsworth Cemetery and extending thence still north-westward along the middle of the last described roadway for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to a point at the entrance to the said cemetery and extending thence still north-westward along the roadway which bisects the same cemetery for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its present north-western end and extending thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the said main line of the London and South-Western Railway and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named line of railway for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to the first described point at the centre of the
