

order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, July 5, 1889.

THE following Statute, passed on the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, by the Governing Body of the House of Christ Church, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

The Governing Body of the House at a meeting specially summoned for the purpose on Wednesday 8 May 1889, did nemine contradicente by Statute add at the end of Statute XXIII the following new clause.

These Exhibitioners shall not be eligible for House Scholarships; but the Governing Body may, if they think fit to do so, bestow on any such Exhibitioner the rights and privileges of a Scholar without the emoluments, continuing to him the full emoluments of his Exhibition.

Christ Church Statute XXIII as altered by the Governing Body on 8 May 1889, by addition of the words in italics.

STATUTE XXIII.

The Exhibitions of the Foundations of Archbishop Boulter for Servitors, Mr. Pouncefoot, Dr. Gardiner, Bishop Frampton, Dr. Cotton, and Mrs. Paul, shall be applied to the support of College Exhibitioners, who shall be elected after examination in such subjects and such manner as the Governing Body shall determine. If and so far as these funds are insufficient, the support of these Exhibitioners shall be charged on the general revenues of the House. Notice of each election shall be given in the same manner as that prescribed above for the election of Open Scholars, and the Exhibitioners shall be elected at first for two years only, the tenure of these Exhibitions being renewable in the same manner as that allowed for Scholarships, and on the same terms. No person shall be appointed to one of these Exhibitions, unless he shall give sufficient proof to the Dean of his need of such assistance to enable him to obtain the benefit of a University education.

These Exhibitioners shall not be eligible for House Scholarships; but the Governing Body may, if they think fit to do so, bestow on any such Exhibitioner the rights and privileges of a Scholar, without the emoluments, continuing to him the full emoluments of his Exhibition.

Christ Church Statute I as altered by the Governing Body on twenty-ninth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, by addition of the words in italics.

STATUTE I.

The Government of the Foundation and the disposal and management of its possessions and revenues, including all estates formerly vested in the Dean and Chapter, or in the Dean and Canons, or in the Dean and certain of the Canons, upon any trust for purposes connected with the House, shall be vested in the Dean, Canons, Students, (except as hereinafter provided), and such other persons as under the provisions of the Statutes may be made members of the Governing Body; and all powers and authorities whatsoever formerly exercised by the Dean and Canons alone, or by the Dean and Canons conjointly with any other person or persons within the House, shall be exercised by the Dean Canons and the said Students and the other persons above-mentioned, as the Governing Body of the House; except only the powers and authorities, which, by the parts hereby left unrepealed and still in force of the ordinance contained in the Schedule to the "Christ Church, Oxford, Act, 1867," are expressly reserved to the Dean and Canons; and the Dean and Canons shall not, on their part, otherwise than as individual members of the Governing Body, be entitled to control or interfere with the exercise of the powers hereby assigned to the Governing Body.

Students of the House elected before the day on which the Commissioners' Ordinance of the ninth day of January, 1858, was approved by Her Majesty in Council shall, if resident in the University, or holding any office within the House, be entitled to act as members of the Governing Body. Those only shall for this purpose be considered resident in the University who shall, at the time when the privilege of residence is claimed or exercised, be qualified as residents to vote in the Congregation of the University under the Act 17th and 18th Victoria, chapter 81.

The House shall have power to elect as a member of the Governing Body any professor endowed wholly or in part from the funds of the House, or any person who is serving the House in the capacity of Treasurer or Steward or who is appointed to discharge the duties of Treasurer or Steward during the incapacity for a longer or shorter period, of either of those officers. Such
