

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council by his report dated the seventeenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

“To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

“That the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Lord Bishop of St. Albans has represented unto us (amongst other things):—

“That there is in the county of Essex and diocese of St. Albans the vicarage of Littlebury.

“That there is in the same county and diocese the rectory of Stretthall the parish whereof lies adjoining to the parish of Littlebury aforesaid.

“That there is in the same county and diocese the vicarage of Saffron Walden the parish whereof lies adjoining to the parish of Littlebury aforesaid.

“That a certain district of the parish of Littlebury lies to the south of the parish of Stretthall and adjacent to it.

“That a certain district of the parish of Saffron Walden lies to the east and immediately adjacent to the parish of Littlebury.

“That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the following alterations in the contents of the above-mentioned parishes may advantageously be made:—

“a. The separation of a district from the parish of Littlebury and its annexation to the parish of Stretthall.

“b. The separation of a district from the parish of Saffron Walden and its annexation to the parish of Littlebury.

“That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction dues rates and payments may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the benefices affected have been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

“The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

“And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty’s reign chapter 106 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

“As witness our hand this seventeenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
“Edw. Cantuar.”

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.
C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy,” after reciting that “Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, “That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested: and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect.”

And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, Lord Bishop of Newcastle, hath represented in a writing dated the twenty-sixth March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York, as follows:—

“To the Most Reverend William Lord Archbishop of York.

“I the Right Reverend Ernest Roland Lord Bishop of Newcastle do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Northumberland and my diocese of Newcastle the vicarage of Warkworth the boundaries of the parish whereof are well known and defined and are more particu-
