

of Aston in the county of Warwick, of the twenty-third October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in so far as it affects burials in the parish of Rushden, in the county of Northampton, and of the thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in so far as it affects burials in the parish of Fishponds, in the county of Gloucester, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Orders, with respect to burials in the churches and churchyards of those parishes, viz., that burials be discontinued as follows :—

ASTON.—Forthwith and entirely in Saint Margaret's Church, Ward End, in the parish of Aston, in the county of Warwick; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz., widows, widowers, parents and unmarried children, as can be buried at or below that depth.

RUSHDEN.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Rushden, in the county of Northampton; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

Also that burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Rushden; and also in the chapelyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults as are now existing in the chapelyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the chapelyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the chapelyard as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of the following persons, at their decease, viz.: Elizabeth Sherwood, Mary Chettle, Hannah Chettle, Rebecca Maddock, Hannah Wilkins, Rhoda Pettitt and Sarah Corby, on condition that they can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

FISHPONDS.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Fishponds, in the county of Gloucester and also forthwith and entirely in the churchyard within six feet of the church and of any dwelling-house; and in the rest of the churchyard, except as follows :—

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred in the churchyard at the date of the Order, viz.: widows, widowers, parents, children, brothers and sisters, as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of August next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-sixth day of August.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discon-
