PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice of Saint John Lee, which said last-named benefice is also situate in the said county of Northumberland and in the said diocese of Newcastle.

“Whereas Wentworth Blackett Beaumont of No. 144, Piccadilly-terrace in the county of Middlesex Esquire, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament is the patron of the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee, with Saint Mary Bingfield and also of the said benefice of Saint John Lee.

“And whereas the present endowments of the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee, with Saint Mary Bingfield comprise amongst other things, first the messuages or tenements tithe commutation rent-charges and other hereditaments which are particularly described in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and secondly two several sums of stock in the same schedule specified, which sums of stock (as by the same schedule appears) are held in favour of the same benefice by the Governors of the Bcunty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint John Lee, is not at present sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Roland Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle has represented to us, and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint John Lee aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary, Bingfield which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary, Bingfield is now full of a Clerk, the incumbent of the same being the Reverend Robert Hutton, Clerk in Holy Orders.

“And whereas the said Robert Hutton is consenting that the apportionment hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take place as from the day hereinafter mentioned in that behalf.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle acting as such Bishop, and with the consent of the said Wentworth Blackett Beaumont, acting as the patron as aforesaid of each of the said two benefices, to wit, the benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee, with Saint Mary, Bingfield, and the benefice of Saint John, Lee, and also with the consent of the said Robert Hutton, acting as incumbent as aforesaid of the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, the Bishop sealing the same with his episcopal seal).

“We the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall have been published in the London Gazette all and singular the messuages or tenements lands tithe commutation rent-charges corn tithes and other hereditaments which are particularly described in the said schedule to this scheme annexed and also the whole of the said two several sums of stock which are described in the same schedule shall be transferred by way of apportionment from the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield to the said benefice of Saint John Lee, and shall as from the day aforesaid be annexed to and form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Saint John Lee and that accordingly the said sums of stock shall as from that day be held by the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne in favour of the said benefice of Saint John, Lee, and as part of the endowments thereof.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to the foregoing Scheme annexed, being a Schedule of those endowments of the benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary, Bingfield, which are to be annexed to the benefice of Saint John Lee.
