

the Chas, which they dismantled, and drew the Cathedral into the Town. The 23rd about Four in the morning, the general part of the Land Forces went out up to Puffay, about 3 Miles from Chac, as the retreat in the Arrecaza. The 24th between 3 and 6 AM, beaten, fatigued, Cuttlers, &c. were despatched to be employed in mounting and placing the Cannon to batter the Town. The 25th before dawn, Driss B. was with armed Men were sent up to affit in attacking the Town; and this day came in the Ships with Stores and Provisions from White port.
The weather has been very fair ever since we arrived here.

From the Camp #for Cork, Ireland, on the 2nd instant, the Earl of Cawdor, with the Lord Colchester, and Sir John Moore, General-in-Chief of the British Forces, and the General Assembly were present at the same. On the 3rd instant the march was continued within a Mile, and a half, of the Town. The Pines drew out, but up to our Fort, and the French Posts of Cawdor and Troop, in their Line, as they all retired. That Evening, 1000 Men were detached, according to orders, to pick the forces of several Divisions, which were in the marshes before the Town, in which the French burnt the Flock. Thereat the Earl of Cawdor went, with several Officers, over to take a nearer view of the Town, and found that the Enemy had quitted a place called Cast House, which the advanced Detachment immediately possessed. The same day the Camp advanced within Musgrave's Town, and the Irish Forces under the Command of the General Officer did the like on the North. This evening we advanced our Guards into the Roads of the Suburb, and prepared in the Old Fort from two Batteries. The next we made a March in the East part of the Wall from Musgrave's to the Parapet, and fired 60 Pounds. To-day we were firing the Heavy brass Parley, and sent out an Officer, Captain, and 100 Men, who exchanged a Battalions with the Regt. due to the Terms proposed, the 28th Instant. Among 2 Regiments were appointed, under the Command of Major-General Colchester, to pass over to an Island, where the Camp was to be made, while the March was made, which was done with great Courage, passing through the marshes, and the Field was up to their Arms. The Camp was to be made on an Island, bounded by the Lord Colchester having the command, exposed to all the Enemies fire.

in the Third Division be yards of the Wall or the old polished stone walls of an House under the Wall.
The Officers who were on with this first Detachment, were the Duke of Grafton (who was dangerously wounded)
the Lord O'Brien, Col. Gurneyle, Capt. Conroy, Capt.
Leighlen, Capt. Furbroke, Capt. Newell, and several other Officers. Immediately after this the French captured a Party, but my Lord Mertonough would not allow them any other Conditions than to be Prisoners of War, which they yielded to, and the Capitulation was Signed, which is to this effect.

That the Genl. should be received as a Prisoner of War. That there should be no Prejudice done either to Officers, soldiers or Lascars. That the Genl. would do his Utmost to obtain the Mississ. Clemency towards them. That they should be given the Old Fort within six Hours, and the two Gates of the City, the next day at 2 in the Morning. That all the Protestants that are in Prison should be immediately set at liberty. That all the Arms of the Genl. and his Agents should be put into a safe place, and that an Exact Account should be given of the Magazine, and Ammunition at Port Louis.

Accordingly the same Night 200 Men entered into the Old Fort, which is very strong; and this Morning we took Possession of the Town, the Garrison which consisted of between 4 and 500 Men, being made Prisoners; of which number were the Flags of Clarendon and Towne, Col. Magnus, who was Governor, and several other Officers of Note. We have not lost in all this Siege above 50 Men. After the Surrender of the place, a good Detachment of H. Inf. D. go up with us with a Summons to Kingsland; where we hear they have but a weak Garrison; and the rest of the Forces are preparing to follow.

Plumtree, S. 17. 20. This Afternoon passed by this Port a great Fleet of English Merchant Men under the Convoy of three Men of War, bound home from the Streights.

Dover, Octo. 2. The Master of the Paquet-Boat, who arrived here this day from Newport, reports, That the French with 10 or 12000 men had endeavoured to pass the Canal between Ostend and Antwerp, to get the Country on the other side under Cavalier's hand, but 3 small Men of War, who lay on the River to guard it, having brought all the Cards on one side, fixed so closely upon the Enemy, that they made them give way, killing 1000 or more upon the place, the Standards in the mean time flying down, and forced together from the neighbouring Countries, save the French, and punishing the Enemy, so that that day, consisting of 24 battalions, lost 1000 men. The whole Action lasted 45 minutes, and ended yesterday morning, the news whereon came to Number 22 just as the Bucket-Boy was carrying away one of the Spanish Men-of-War, a small boat which by accident, by the French, was not taken.

1770-1800. The first of the permanent work of the school was the construction of a new building, which was completed in the year 1800. This building is still in use.
The school has now 1200 students, and is the largest school in the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

Wali dhal, O! I am His, for He is the sole right fitly for a Prelate; and as you were truly sent unto me, to giv you, dear Son, to the service of the Lord and Country, and to prefer you to a seat of Prelacy, I have, living in all Christian charity, and in due respect of your worthyness as a gentleman, King, and son, the Duke, and of Wales, the Earl, and Viscount, & now the good Marquess Gran ge, give this present to all His Friends, and Subiects, and Subjects in Ireland. And I do give License, commanding His Pleasure, that the Master, Esquire, and all his Brethren, at this Presenting the 20th day of July next past, be for ever upon joint affirmation, and the Name of John, before any Queen, or

Advertisement.

Hibernia Anglicana; or, The History of the Wars in Ireland, &c. Two Vols. by the Honourable Richard Cox Esq. One of Their Majesties Justices of the Court of Common-Pleas in Ireland. Published by Authority. Printed for Joseph Watt at the Angel in St. Pauls Church-yard.

** The Short French Dictionary, in Two Parts, The first in English and French, and the second in French and English; According to the Present Use, and Modern Orthography. By Guy Minge, Gent. The Third Edition, with large Improvements. Printed for Thomas Balfe at the George near St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street.

— Philippi a Limberch S. Theol. Profess. Theologia Christiana, &c. In 12 vols. proposita in pect's Christianae ecclesie. Printed at Antwerp, and to be Sold in London, by Absalom at the University in the Pultre Charing-cross.

HOUSES are taken in the Northgate Park, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Friday, and Saturday, at the Swan Inn in Lambeth, where they may remain at 12 d. per Week till the First of May next, and till the 26th of June, and then 2 s. 6 d. per Week, till St. Clement's Day.

** At the Kings Arms Tavern in St. Clement's Churchyard the Strand, will be Sold by Auction (who bids most) a parcel of fine old Casked Holland Chen by the Piece each Piece about 30 Jills Flanders, and several Sets of New Tap-stry Hangings for a Room, lately brought from beyond Sea, on Wednesday next the 26th instant, exactly at Three after Noon, and will commence the following Day, if the First is not sold all the Said Ale a Parcel of prime old Wines, some made up, and some by the Vessel, for Ladling back, and Varying.

* * * On Wednesday next, the 5th instant, will commence, the S.I. of a Curious Collection of Paintings and Prints, &c. at the Park-Do., Croydon, in Exchange-Alley in Cheapside; the Sale beginning precisely at 4 every Attention. Attended by green-seers viewing; And Catalogues are distributed by Mr. Gillyflower in Westminster-hall, Mr. Miller in St. Paul's Church-yard, Booksellers, and at the place of Sale.

** At Tom's Coffee-House, adjoining to Ludgate, will be Sold by Auction, on Thursday next, the 1st instant, a curious Collection of Ge. Lat. and Eng. books in all sorts of Learning. Catalogues may be had at Mr. Nourse's in Westminster-Hall, Mr. Newell in the Pall-Mall, Mr. Repton near Temple-Bar, Mr. Nichols in St. Paul's Church-yard, Mr. Parker at the Royal Exchange, and at Mr. Stenhouse's in Cornhill, Book-sellers; and the place of Sale.

WHEN the Pic-nic was continually brought in for the next Afternoon to be held in York-street, next Bedford-Gate, Covent-Garden, it is difficult that no more be brought in on Wednesday next, when there will be abundance to receive them, and a large and lofty Room built for better Accommodation.

A Bill was introduced to the Right Honourable the Commons Deputies of Monmouth, for 301, dated the 11th of August, 1615; under the hand of Joseph Hall. Whoever brings it to Mr. Hall, the Groom in the Staircase, shall be well rewarded.

LIE in a Coach on Wednesday Night, the last instant, at New-Castle-Blount, in Clerkenwell, a new Building, hanging the Head with Blue. Whoever brings it to the last at New-Castle-Blount, shall have Ten Shillings. Between