

And whereas under and by virtue of the Local Government Act 1888 the powers and business of the said Justices in relation to the matters aforesaid have been transferred to the County Council of the county of Salop.

And whereas a petition was on the eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine presented to Her Majesty by the Salop County Council praying that Her Majesty with the advice of Her Privy Council would be pleased to order and declare that the said boroughs of Bridgnorth Ludlow and Oswestry should each be constituted a separate County Coroner's district by the names respectively of Bridgnorth Ludlow and Oswestry, each of such districts to consist of that part of the said county comprised within the limits of the municipal area, and also that Her Majesty would be pleased to authorize writs de coronatore eligendo to be issued for electing a Coroner for each of the districts, which said petition together with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the petition is founded was duly certified to Her Majesty.

And whereas all the provisions of the hereinbefore firstly recited Act in that behalf have been strictly complied with in relation to the said petition.

And whereas John Pay a Coroner of the same county presented a petition to Her Majesty concerning such proposed alteration but no other Coroner of the same county has presented any such petition.

And whereas Her Majesty has with the advice of Her Privy Council taken into consideration the said petitions and is minded to make such alteration as aforesaid and also to direct the issue of writs de coronatore eligendo for the election of three additional Coroners for the said county.

Now therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to order direct and declare, and it is hereby ordered directed and declared, that:—

(1.) Writs de coronatore eligendo for the election of three additional Coroners for the county of Salop shall forthwith be directed to the Salop County Council.

(2.) From and after the date hereof the areas and districts of the said boroughs of Bridgnorth Ludlow and Oswestry shall respectively be and form separate districts of the said county for the purposes of the said firstly mentioned Act and such districts shall respectively be named the "Bridgnorth District" the "Ludlow District" and the "Owestry District."

(3.) The existing "Owestry and Pimhill District" shall from and after the date hereof be called the "Pimhill District."

(4.) The existing "Owestry and Pimhill, Ford, Stottesden, Purslow, Bradford North and Bradford South and Brimstree Shiffnall Districts" shall from and after the date hereof comprise respectively the several parishes and places and have the boundaries prescribed and ordered in that behalf in and by the said Orders in Council dated June thirtieth one thousand eight hundred and forty-five and March ninth one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

(5.) This Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 8th day of February, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838" after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice; or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested: and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by "The Pluralities Act 1887" it is, amongst other things, enacted that "a scheme under section 26 of 'The Pluralities Act, 1838' in relation to any part of a parish, or extra-parochial place, may provide for the transfer thereof to a different diocese," and further that "where after the passing of the Act now in recital it is proposed, by a scheme under section twenty-six of 'The Pluralities Act 1838,' that a part of a parish, or an extra-parochial place, in any diocese should be transferred to another diocese, such scheme may be consented to in writing by the Bishop of the other diocese, and (if the two dioceses are not in the same Province) may be approved by the Archbishop of the Province in which the said other diocese is situate; and upon such consent, or such consent and approval, being given the
