

STATUTE 43:

Provision in case of change in the value of Money.

No alteration in the specific sums mentioned in these Statutes shall be made in consequence of any change in the value of money or for any other reason except by Statute made in accordance with the provisions of the fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sections of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877.

STATUTE 44.

Provision for increasing the Number of Fellowships and Scholarships.

If at any time it shall appear to the Governing Body that the income of the College is permanently more than sufficient to make in full the payments hereinbefore directed to be made out of the income of the College Account (No. I.) they may (subject as hereinafter provided) increase the number of Corporate Fellows (either permanently or temporarily) or retain such part as they may think fit of the excess and apply the same either in increasing the amount to be paid to the Scholarship Fund or for such other College purposes as may be considered most advantageous to the College as a place of education religion learning and research. Provided that no increase of Fellowships shall be effected which will have the effect of rendering the income of the College insufficient to make the said payments in full and if moreover after any such increase shall have been made it shall appear that the increase cannot be maintained consistently with the said payments being made in full then such a number of the new Fellowships shall from time to time as vacancies in them shall occur be suppressed as will suffice to render so far as practicable the income sufficient to make such payments in full.

STATUTE 45.

Giving of Notice.

(1.) In all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to the Master it shall be sufficient that the notice be left at the Master's Lodge.

(2.) Every Fellow shall upon or immediately after becoming a Fellow and may from time to time afterwards leave with such officer as the Governing Body shall appoint a place of address to which all notices intended for him are to be sent; and in all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to any Fellow it shall be sufficient that the notice be sent by post or otherwise to the last address so left by him. A list of the places of address so left by the several Fellows shall be kept in such place as the Governing Body shall appoint and shall be open to the inspection at all reasonable times of the Master and of any Fellow. Any Fellow who shall not have left with the proper officer a place of address shall notwithstanding any of the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to notice not be entitled to any notice whatever of any proceeding matter or thing whatsoever even although it may especially affect him individually.

STATUTE 46.

Construction of the Statutes.

If any question shall arise in regard to the construction of any of these Statutes it shall be decided by the Governing Body. But it shall be competent to any party affected by such decision to appeal to the Visitor provided he appeal within two calendar months or within such period not less than two calendar months as shall be allowed by the Governing Body for the purpose after the decision shall have come to his knowledge; but failing an appeal within the time allowed for the purpose the decision of the Governing Body shall be final. The Visitor if appealed to within due time may affirm vary or reverse the decision of the Governing Body and his decision shall be final.

STATUTE 47.

Preservation of existing Interests.

The interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of all Fellows elected before the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight shall be regulated by the Statutes by which the same would have been regulated if these Statutes had not come into operation and with respect to such of the said Fellows as are not already Seniors elections to the Seniority shall continue to be made in the manner in which they would have been made if these Statutes had not come into operation.

STATUTE 48.

Repeal of previously existing Statutes.

From and after the approval of this Statute by Order of the Queen in Council none of the Statutes of the College which existed and were in force before such approval shall be of any force and effect save and except in so far as such former Statutes or any of them relate to the interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of the Fellows of the College elected before the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight but the repeal of such former Statutes shall not be taken to revive the provisions of any previously existing Statutes of the College which were repealed by the said former Statutes.
