FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1890.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 27, 1890.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 5th, and on Friday, the 14th, of March, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Lady to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at a Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 24, 1890.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 17th of March, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear at the Levee in their Collars, it being (St. Patrick's Day) a Collar-day.

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levée, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, February 26, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of Prize Money awarded for the following captures by Her Majesty's ship "Reindeer," viz.:—two dhows, names unknown, dhow "Star," dhow "Daga" and two slaves, and dhow, name unknown, and two slaves, captured 16th and 17th May, 8th and 19th June,
 and 11th July, respectively.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the Admiralty Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

 ment in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Michael and All Angels, Swanmore, in the Isle of Wight, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eighty-eight pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a portion of the value of a certain house and premises which are about to be permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Augustine, Stepney, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, do hereby in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Augustine, Stepney, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, such capital sum to be paid as part of the consideration for the conveyance in fee simple of the house and premises above mentioned as and for a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint Augustine, Stepney.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a certain freehold house and premises, comprising three roods and four perches, or thereabouts, which have been permanently secured as a parsonage house for the vicarage of Stapleford, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Southwell, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Stapleford, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Stapleford, one yearly sum of thirty pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, such yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

INSTRUMENT assigning a Particular District to the Church of All Saints, Rockwell Green, situate within the limits of the parish of Wellington, in the county of Somerset, and Diocese of Bath and Wells.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the Honourable and Right

Reverend Arthur Charles, Bishop of the Diocese of Bath and Wells, send greeting:

WHEREAS a church has lately been built at Rockwell Green, within the limits of the parish of Wellington, in the county of Somerset, and in the said diocese of Bath and Wells, by and at the expense of certain well-disposed persons, who have, with the approbation of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and of the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, secured to the said new church an endowment and a repair fund, in accordance with the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts," or of some of them, and particularly of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-seven.

And whereas under the powers or authorities contained in the said Acts, or of some of them, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, with the consent of the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, by an instrument bearing date on or about the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, declared that the perpetual right of patronage of, and of nominating a Minister, to serve, the said new church from time to time and at all times whenever it should be requisite to nominate a Minister to serve the same should, from and after the consecration of such church, be vested in, and be exercised by, and belong to, Frederick Thomas Elworthy, of Wellington, in the said county of Somerset, Gentleman, Samuel Dobree, of Wellington aforesaid, Gentleman, Sarah Mary Elworthy, of Wellington aforesaid, Spinster, Florence Elworthy, of Wellington aforesaid, Spinster, and the Rev. and Philip Palfrey Broadmead, of Bradford Vicarage, near Wellington aforesaid, their heirs and assigns for ever.

And whereas the said church has since been consecrated, and is called "The Church of All Saints, Rockwell Green."

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England deem it expedient that a particular district, to comprise a part of the said parish of Wellington should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, Rockwell Green, and also that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church.

Now know ye, that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the powers or authorities for this purpose contained in the several Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts" as aforesaid, or in some of them, and particularly in the Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-eight, in the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and in the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling them in this behalf, do hereby, with the consent of the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified by his being a party to and executing these presents), assign to the said church of All Saints, Rockwell Green, as a particular district, all that part of the said parish of Wellington which is described in the schedule hereunder written; and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and do direct that the same shall be called "The Particular District of All Saints, Rockwell Green."

And the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the like consent of the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified as aforesaid), in further exercise and execution of the powers or authorities contained in the said Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts," or in some of them, and particularly in the said Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-eight, in the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty, and in the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-six (such two lastly-mentioned Acts being also two of "The Church Building Acts" before named); in the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and in the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all powers or authorities in anywise enabling them in this behalf, do hereby determine and declare that banns of matrimony shall be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be solemnized or performed at the church of the said particular district of All Saints, Rockwell Green, and do hereby order and direct that all the fees, dues, offerings, or other emoluments to be received in respect of such publication of banns of matrimony, and of such solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials at the same church shall, from and after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Wellington, belong to the Incumbent for the time being of the said particular district of All Saints, Rockwell Green: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

In witness whereof the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto affixed their common seal, and the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, has hereunto set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. (L.S.)

Arthur Bath and Wells. (L.S.)

The Schedule.

The Particular District of All Saints, Rockwell Green, being:—

All that part of the parish of Wellington, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which is bounded on the south by the parish of Hemyock, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, upon the west and upon the south-west by the parish of Sampford Arundel, upon the north-west partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Thorne Saint Margaret, partly by the parish of Langford Budville and partly by the parish of Runnington, all in the said county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides a certain detached portion of the said parish of Langford Budville from the parish of Wellington aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the River Tone opposite to the northern end of Winsbeer-lane, and extending thence southward and in a direct line for a distance of one chain or thereabouts, thereby crossing the remains of the Great Western Canal to the northern end of Winsbeer-lane aforesaid, and extending thence generally south-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of thirty and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath which leads past the buildings called or known as Lower Westford Farm to Lower Westford, and extending thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of twenty-three and a quarter chains or thereabouts to the road which leads from Westford to Tone, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath which leads past the buildings called or known as Westford Cottages, towards the Basins, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described footpath for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it strikes the stream called or known as Westford Stream, and extending thence first eastward to and along the middle of the said stream for a distance of three chains or thereabouts, thereby passing under the line of the Great Western Railway, and then north-eastward and eastward along the middle of the same stream for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction at the aqueducts with the stream which flows from Wiveliscombe Bottom, past Bryant's Farm, Lower Nowers, and Rockwell Green towards the River Tone aforesaid, and extending thence generally south-eastward along the middle of the last-described stream for a distance of one mile and forty-three chains or thereabouts to the middle of the bridge or culvert which carries the road leading from the house called or known as Bryant's Farm aforesaid, into Park-lane, over the same stream, and extending thence, that is to say, from the said bridge or culvert south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Park-lane aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to its southern end, at the house called or known as Park Farm, and continuing thence still generally southward to and along the middle of the occupation road leading from the last-named farmhouse into the high road leading from the Firs to Wrangway, to the point near to the house called or known as the Cat and Fiddle, where the said occupation road joins the last-described high road, and extending thence in a direction due south, and in a straight line for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Wellington from the parish of Hemyock aforesaid.
