

Gluvias and chapelry of Penryn and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name or style of the perpetual curacy of Budock of which the church within the same chapelry of Budock shall be the parish church and that the vicar of Saint Gluvias-with-Penryn shall be discharged from all cure of souls within the limits of the said separate parish of Budock.

"That the proposed separate parish and benefice of Budock shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Saint Gluvias-with-Penryn and the incumbent of such separate parish and benefice shall have the exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the whole of the vicarial rent-charges in lieu of tithes payable in respect of lands within the said chapelry of Budock commuted at the sum of four hundred and twenty pounds shall belong and be annexed to the proposed separate parish and benefice of Budock and be held received and enjoyed by the incumbent thereof for ever.

"That baptisms, churchings, marriages, burials, and all other parochial ecclesiastical offices shall as heretofore be performed in the church and separate parish of Budock and that the fees for all such offices performed within the same church and separate parish and all Easter offerings and other ecclesiastical dues and fees if any arising within the same shall belong to the incumbent of the same church and separate parish.

"That except as aforesaid and except also the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed separate benefice of Budock all the vicarial rent-charges in lieu of tithes, residence house, glebe lands and all other the endowments and emoluments and the patronage of Penwerris and all other patronage (if any) now belonging to the said vicarage of Saint Gluvias with the chapelries of Penryn and Budock shall continue to belong to the said vicarage of Saint Gluvias and chapelry of Penryn as separated from the proposed perpetual curacy of Budock and shall be held received and enjoyed by the vicar thereof for ever and the church within the said parish of Saint Gluvias shall continue to be the parish church of the same parish and of the chapelry of Penryn.

"That one moiety of the first fruits, tenths, and other ecclesiastical dues now payable by the incumbent of Saint Gluvias with the chapelries of Penryn and Budock annexed shall henceforth be payable by the incumbent of Saint Gluvias with the chapelry of Penryn as separated from the said chapelry of Budock, and the other moiety thereof shall henceforth be payable by the incumbent of the said parish and benefice of Budock.

"That churchwardens shall continue to be annually chosen as heretofore in and for the said parishes and chapelries of Saint Gluvias, Penryn, and Budock respectively.

"That subject to the provisions of the Church Rates Abolition Act thirty-one and thirty-two Victoria chapter one hundred and nine the inhabitants of the parish of Saint Gluvias-with-Penryn as separated from the said parish of Budock shall be exclusively liable for the maintenance of the parish church of the same parish and the inhabitants of the said separate parish of Budock shall be exclusively liable for the maintenance of the parish church thereof and the parishioners and inhabitants of the said proposed separate parish of Budock shall not be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Saint Gluvias nor shall the parishioners and inhabitants of the parish and chapelry of Saint Gluvias and Penryn be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Budock.

"That the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed separate benefice of Budock shall be vested in and exercised by the Bishop of Truro and his successors for ever.

" CONSENTS.

"We George Howard, Lord Bishop of Truro the patron now entitled to present or nominate to the vicarage and parish church of Saint Gluvias with the chapelries of Penryn and Budock do hereby as such patron and I the Reverend Alexander Allen Vawdrey as the incumbent of the same vicarage do hereby as such incumbent consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the said chapelry of Budock from the said vicarage and parish of Saint Gluvias and chapelry of Penryn and for constituting the said chapelry of Budock a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"In witness whereof we the said Bishop and the said Alexander Allen Vawdrey have subscribed the same the twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

"Georg. H. Truron.

"A. A. Vawdrey."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration ;

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, which said report is in the words and figures following :—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council :—

"That the Right Reverend George Howard Lord Bishop of Truro has represented unto us (amongst other things) :

"That there is in the county of Cornwall and diocese of Truro the vicarage of Saint Gluvias which comprises the parish of Saint Gluvias and the chapelries of Penryn and Budock the boundaries of which parish and chapelries respectively are well known and defined.

"That the said chapelry of Budock has its own church for the exclusive use and accommodation of its own inhabitants.

"That the church of the said chapelry of Budock is distant from the parish church of Saint Gluvias two miles or thereabouts.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said chapelry of Budock may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Saint Gluvias and chapelry of Penryn and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and six the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithe rent-charges dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the said Lord Bishop