(a.) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six in any year, and subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what numbers shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively:

(d.) The emoluments of an Open Entrance Scholarship for the first two years shall not exceed eighty pounds per annum, inclusive of rent of rooms and all allowances. The emoluments and allowances of an Open Entrance Scholarship after the first two years, if the Scholarship be prolonged, and of an Open Undergraduate Scholarship, shall be such as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine.

17. If under the foregoing provisions of this Statute the number of Eton Scholarships or Open Scholarships be in any year increased beyond twenty-four, then not more than six such Scholarships shall be offered in any subsequent year until their number is again reduced to twenty-four.

And whereas by Statute M chapter IV. made by the said Commissioners it is enacted as follows:

1. The Vintner Legacy and the Purefoy, Price, Day and Betham Funds shall be applicable for Exhibitions according to the following scheme:

(a.) A Vintner Exhibition to be awarded for proficiency in Natural Science and to consist of the whole or such part of the annual income of Dr. Vintner's Legacy as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine, after deducting what, if anything, may be necessary for the payment of examiners, and having regard to the proviso as to maximum value hereinafter contained:

(b.) Two Exhibitions to be awarded for proficiency in the ordinary studies of the College, each to consist of one-half or such other part of the net income of the Purefoy, Price, Day and Betham funds as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine, having regard to the proviso as to maximum value hereinafter contained:

(c.) Each Exhibition shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College in their first or second year of residence, and to such other candidates as are at the commencement of the examination under the age of nineteen years and bring satisfactory certificates of moral character, provided that no Exhibition shall be tenable with any Scholarship or Fellowship of the College, and that in the event of any person not a member of the College obtaining any Exhibition, he shall forthwith become a member of the College:

(d.) Each Exhibition shall be tenable for two years with power of prolongation by the Council for a further period not exceeding two years.

(e.) No exhibition shall exceed in value the emoluments of an Open Entrance Scholarship, and any surplus income shall be carried to a Capital account, and accumulated for the purpose of forming a fund for a future Exhibition or Exhibitions, similar to the Exhibition or Exhibitions from the surplus income of which such accumulation shall have accrued and so toties quoties:

(f.) The Exhibitions shall be awarded by the Council, who shall have power to appoint such examiners and make such regulations for conducting the examinations as they may think fit.

2. All other property (not being part of the general endowment of the College) held by the College upon any trusts, conditions or directions, which might lawfully have been modified by these Statutes, shall continue to be administered as heretofore, unless and until some other mode of administering the same shall be prescribed by some alteration of these Statutes, or by other competent authority.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statutes F. and M. chapter IV. in manner hereinafter appearing. Now therefore we the Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act alter and amend the said Statute F. hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say)

1. There shall be forty-eight Scholarships in the College, of which twenty-four shall be called Eton Scholarships, and twenty-four shall be called Open Scholarships; but the Honorary Scholarships mentioned in section eighteen (a) of this chapter shall not be reckoned in this number.

2. Both the Eton and the Open Scholarships shall be divided into Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships.

3. An Eton Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable for four years, and an Open Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable in the first instance for two years, but may be prolonged by the Council for a further period or further periods, provided that the total period of prolongation shall in no case exceed two years, the tenure being in each case reckoned from the first day of the term in which the holder of the Scholarship commenced residence in the University. Any Entrance Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to an Undergraduate Scholarship or a Fellowship.

4. An undergraduate Scholarship shall be tenable until the holder completes four years from the twenty-fifth day of March in the academical year in which he commenced residence in the University. But such a scholarship may be prolonged by the Council for a further period or further periods, provided that the total period of prolongation shall in no case exceed two years. Any Undergraduate Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to a Fellowship.

5. No Scholarship shall be tenable with any office or emolument on the foundation of any other College in the University, or of any College in the University of Oxford, or of Trinity College, Dublin.
