

ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas the said John Sharp has with the concurrence of the said William Walsham Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield nominated to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as the persons in whom it is desired that the said right of patronage and nomination should be vested the Right Honourable Charles Lindley Viscount Halifax the Venerable Archdeacon Joshua Ingham Brooke now vicar of the vicarage of Halifax in the said county of York the Reverend Frederick Ralph Grenside Clerk in Holy Orders now rector of the rectory of Thornhill in the same county the Reverend Bernard Moultrie Clerk in Holy Orders of Saint James' College Southleigh in the county of Oxford and Michael Edwin Sanderson Esquire of South Parade Wakefield one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace their heirs and assigns for ever.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Walsham Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Horbury which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary the Virgin, Horbury Junction.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said Charles Lindley, Viscount Halifax Joshua Ingham Brooke Frederick Ralph Grenside Bernard Moultrie and Michael Edwin Sanderson their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary the Virgin, Horbury Junction, being:—

"All that part of the parochial chapelry of Horbury within the original limits of the parish of Wakefield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Wakefield, which is bounded upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Luke, Middlestown, upon the south-east and upon the east by the new parish of Saint James Chapelthorpe, upon the north by the new parish of Thornes all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the west, by an imaginary line, commencing at the point, where the boundaries of the said new parish of Thornes, of the new parish of Saint Michael, Westgate Common, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parochial chapelry of Horbury aforesaid, all meet, in the middle of the Wakefield and Huddersfield-road, at or near to the buildings called or known as the Horbury Dye House and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of forty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with Walker-lane and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Cluntergate, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cross-street, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three and a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Back-lane and with the public footpath which leads towards the River Calder and continuing thence first southward and then alternately south-eastward and south-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of thirty-five and a-half chains or thereabouts (thereby following in part the course of a certain occupation-road and crossing the line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway) to the junction of the same footpath with the public footpath which extends along the northern bank of the River Calder aforesaid, and leads from Horbury Bridge to Dudfleet Mill, and extending thence in a direction due south and in a straight line for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to the boundary in the middle of the said River Calder which boundary divides the said parochial chapelry of Horbury from the new parish of Saint Luke, Middlestown aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parochial chapelry of Horbury and to the patron and incumbent of the parish of Wakefield within the limits of which the said parochial chapelry is situate, out of which parochial chapelry it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the patron of the said parish of Wakefield and the incumbent of the said parochial chapelry of Horbury have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the Venerable Archdeacon Straton as the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Wakefield and as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the said parochial chapelry of Horbury has offered certain objections to the said scheme.

And whereas notwithstanding such objections the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.
