

was further partly repealed, and the Local Act of 1826, and the said Local Government Supplemental Act, 1869, were altered and amended, and provision was made for the abolition of certain tolls payable under the last-mentioned Local Act; by a Provisional Order made by the like authority dated the tenth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 4) Act, 1882, the Local Act of 1821 was further partly repealed, and the Local Act of 1826, and the said Local Government Supplemental Act, 1869, were further altered and amended, and provision was made for, amongst other things, the redemption of the said rates leviable under the last two mentioned Acts, and further powers were conferred upon the Local Board; and by a Provisional Order made by the like authority dated the fourth June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 7) Act, 1885, the said Local Government Supplement Act, 1859, and the said Local Government Act, 1868 (No. 6), were altered and amended, and provision was made for the repayment of certain then outstanding loans by means of sinking funds in the manner therein prescribed:

"And whereas by the West Worthing Improvement Act, 1865 (hereinafter called the Local Act of 1865), a body of Commissioners (hereinafter called the Improvement Commissioners) was constituted and appointed for putting such Act into execution within the district of the town of West Worthing in the said parish of Heene adjoining the district of the Local Board, the boundary of which district was defined by the same Act and has from time to time been extended in the manner thereby provided so as to include certain other parts of the same parish:

"And whereas by a Provisional Order of the Local Government Board dated the twenty-seventh May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 6) Act, 1884, the local Act of 1865 was amended and partly repealed and the Improvement Commissioners were authorized to borrow money on the security of their district fund and general district rate, and provision was made for the repayment of the money so to be borrowed by means of a sinking fund, and further powers were conferred upon the Improvement Commissioners: And by a Provisional Order made by the like authority dated the second June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 7) Act, 1887, the Local Act of 1865 was further amended and partly repealed:

"And whereas under and in pursuance of the Local Acts of 1821 and 1826 and the said Provisional Orders the Local Board have erected, constructed, or are otherwise possessed of a town-hall, offices, recreation grounds, and other lands and premises, works for the sewerage and disposal of the sewage of their district, works for the supply of water to their district, and to part of the said parish of Broadwater without the same, groynes, embankments, and other sea defences within the limits extended as aforesaid for the purposes of such defences, and other works and things for the benefit of their district, and have from time to time borrowed money upon the security of the district fund and general district rates of such district:

"And whereas part of the said sum of twenty thousand pounds mentioned in the hereinbefore recited Provisional Order of the twenty-seventh May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the repayment whereof with interest is charged upon the coal duty and upon the general district rate, leviable within the district of Worthing as theretofore constituted, and part of certain moneys which were borrowed by the Local Board for the purpose of their said waterworks, the repayment whereof with interest is charged upon the water rates, or rents and charges payable to the Local Board in respect of the supply of water by them and upon the district fund and general district rates of the whole district of Worthing, and the balance of certain other loans, the repayment whereof is charged upon the district fund and general district rates of the said whole district are still outstanding and unpaid, and a sinking fund has been created by the Local Board for the repayment of some part of the said waterworks loan and the other last-mentioned loans:

"And whereas under and in pursuance of the Local Act of 1865, and the said Provisional Orders and Confirmation Acts amending the same, the Improvement Commissioners have erected or constructed, or are otherwise possessed of, offices and other lands and premises, works for the sewerage and disposal of the sewage of their district, groynes, embankments, and other sea defences, and other works and things, for the benefit of such district, and have from time to time borrowed money upon the security of their district fund and the general district rates leviable by them within their district:

"And whereas the owners and occupiers of houses and buildings in the said portion of the parish of Heene which is not included in the district of West Worthing are entitled under the Local Act of 1865 to certain rights of drainage into the sewers of the Improvement Commissioners but the said portion of the said parish is not liable to be rated by the Commissioners towards the cost of such sewers or the repayment of the loans raised by the Commissioners for the construction thereof, which said loans are described in the second schedule to this scheme:

"And whereas the balance of certain loans, the repayment whereof is charged upon the district fund and general district rate of the district of West Worthing, is still outstanding and unpaid, and no sinking fund has been created by the Improvement Commissioners for the repayment thereof:

"And whereas by virtue of the hereinbefore recited Acts and Provisional Orders, the Local Board and the Improvement Commissioners have respectively made Bye-laws which are in force within their respective districts:

"And whereas by the West Worthing Waterworks and Baths Acts, 1884, the West Worthing Waterworks and Baths Company (hereinafter called the Waterworks Company) were incorporated for the purpose of supplying water within the district of the Improvement Commissioners, and the remaining portion of the parish of Heene, and within the adjoining parish of West Tarring, and part of the parish of Broadwater, and have constructed waterworks and baths, and now supply water within the said limits by virtue of such Act and the Acts incorporated therewith:

"And whereas the Local Board are the Urban Sanitary Authority for their said district of Worthing as extended as aforesaid, the Improvement Commissioners are the Urban Sanitary Authority for their said Improvement Act district of West Worthing, and the Guardians of the Poor of the East Preston Union, in the said county of Sussex, are the Rural Sanitary Authority for
