

"That the Reverend Arthur Medland Rendell is desirous of relinquishing and the Reverend Hugh Somerville Gedge is desirous of annexing to All Saints that portion of the parish of Saint Margaret's described in the scheme hereunder written.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six the portions of the said parish of Saint Margaret's described in the scheme hereunder written may with advantage to the interests of religion be separated therefrom and annexed to the said parish of All Saints for all ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act of Parliament I have prepared the following scheme which I submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop, and the consents of the patron and of the incumbents of the said benefices are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"That all the outlying portions of the parish of Saint Margaret's which have been united to the parish of All Saints for civil purposes under the 'Outlying Parochial Boundaries Act' comprising that part of Swan-street extending north from number thirty-six that part of the west side of Warrington-street extending north from number sixteen that part of Pingle-street extending west on the north side from number nineteen and on the south side from number eighteen that part of Fuller-street extending west on the north side from number thirty-four and on the south side from number thirteen, that part of the west side of Northgate-street extending north from number sixty-two, that part of the west side of Frog Island extending north from the canal bridge to number eighteen Frog Island that part of North Bridge-place extending west on the north side from number three and on the south side from number two and which for the purpose of identification is shown on the plan hereto annexed and surrounded by a yellow verge line shall be for all ecclesiastical purposes separated from the said parish of Saint Margaret's Leicester and annexed to the said parish of All Saints Leicester and the incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Saint Margaret's shall be exempt from all cure of souls within the said part of the parish of Saint Margaret's so proposed to be separated and annexed as aforesaid.

"That the inhabitants residing within the said hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Saint Margaret's shall not be entitled to any pews or sittings or other accommodation within the church belonging to the said parish of Saint Margaret's but shall be entitled to accommodation in the said church of All Saints and shall be exempt from all rates charges or assessments to be made for or in respect of the church within and belonging to the said parish of Saint Margaret's but shall be subject to all rates, taxes, charges, or assessments made for or in respect of the church of All Saints.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this fourteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"W. C. Peterborough."

"CONSENTS.

"To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I William Connor Lord Bishop of Peterborough being the patron or person entitled to present to the vicarage of Saint Margaret's Leicester and the vicarage of All Saints Leicester both in the county of Leicester do by this writing under my hand signify to your Grace my consent to the scheme above proposed to your Grace for separating the said portions from the said parish of Saint Margaret's and annexing it to the said parish of All Saints.

"Witness my hand this fourteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"W. C. Peterborough."

"I Arthur Medland Rendell Clerk being the present incumbent of Saint Margaret's Leicester in the county of Leicester do by this writing under my hand consent to the scheme above proposed.

"Witness my hand this sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"Arthur M. Rendell."

"I Hugh Somerville Gedge Clerk being the present incumbent of All Saints Leicester in the county of Leicester do by this writing under my hand consent to the scheme above proposed.

"Witness my hand this sixteenth day of May in year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"Hugh Somerville Gedge."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid, to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend William Connor Lord Bishop of Peterborough has represented unto us (amongst other things),—

"That there is in the town and county of Leicester and diocese of Peterborough the ancient parish of St. Margaret's.

"That there is also in the said town of Leicester the ancient parish of All Saints.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the portions of the parish of St. Margaret described in the scheme referred to in the said representation and being outlying portions of the parish of St. Margaret which have been united to the parish of All Saints for civil purposes may be advantageously separated from the said parish of St. Margaret and annexed to the said parish of All Saints for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 106 the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction rent-charges dues rates and payments and in respect to rights to pews
