"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Christ Church (Forest of Dean) and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John Coleford, both in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Christ Church (Forest of Dean) which is bounded upon the east by the new parish of Saint John (Cinderford) upon the south by the new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) both in the county and diocese aforesaid, upon the west by the said new parish of Saint John, Coleford, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Coleford from the new parish of Christ Church (Forest of Dean) aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road which leads from Staunton to Mitcheldean near to Crabtree Pool and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. J. N. P. 1890 No. 1' and placed at the western angle of the boundary fence of Coverham Inclosure and extending thence first southward to the said boundary stone and then southward, south-eastward north-eastward, and again south-eastward along the fence forming the south-western boundary of the said inclosure for a distance of forty-five-and-a-half chains or thereabouts to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. J. N. P. 1890 No. 2' and placed at the south-eastern end of the said boundary fence upon the north-western side of the road which leads from Coleford to Mitcheldean and extending thence first south-eastward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the last described road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the milestone which indicates a distance of eighteen miles to Gloucester and of one hundred and twenty-three miles to London and extending thence due east and in a direct line for a distance of one mile and thirty chains or thereabouts thereby passing to the north of Wimberry Colliery to a point on the western side of the line of the Severn and Wye and Severn Bridge Railway about three-and-a-half chains to the north of the junction of the same line of railway with the tramway leading to Wimberry Colliery aforesaid the said point being upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church (Forest of Dean) from the new parish of Saint John (Cinderford) aforesaid.

"The SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John, Coleford, aforesaid being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) which is bounded upon the south-west by the new parish of Clearwell, in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the west by the said new parish of Saint John Coleford upon the north by the portion of the said new parish of Christ Church (Forest of Dean) which is described in the First Schedule to the foregoing scheme or representation and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the line of the Severn and Wye and Severn Bridge Railway aforesaid, near to the Speech House-road Station where the same line of railway is crossed by the road leading from Coleford to Cinderford and where the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church (Forest of Dean) of the said new parish of Saint John (Cinderford) and of the said new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) all meet, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of sixty-six chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the mile post which indicates a distance of six miles to Lydney and extending thence south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of one mile and thirty-one chains or thereabouts across the southernmost of the two Cannop Ponds, across the tramway from the Bixhead Quarries, and across Nagshead Inclosure, thereby passing to the south-east of Nagshead Lodge, to the point where the road leading from Coleford to Parkend is crossed by the line of the Coleford Branch of the said Severn and Wye and Severn Bridge Railway upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) from the new parish of Clearwell aforesaid.

"The THIRD SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Clearwell and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John Coleford aforesaid, being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Clearwell which is bounded upon the north by the new parish of Saint John Coleford aforesaid upon the north-east by the portion of the said new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) which is described in the Second Schedule to the foregoing scheme or representation, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the south-east upon the west, and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul (Forest of Dean) from the new parish of Clearwell aforesaid at the point last-mentioned in the said Second Schedule to the foregoing scheme or representation where the road leading from Coleford to Parkend is crossed by the said Coleford branch line of the Severn and Wye and Severn Bridge Railway and extending thence first south-westward then westward and then north-westward along the middle of the same line of railway for a distance of fifty-one chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Milkwall-road over the same branch line of railway and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to the boundary at, or near to the junction of the same road with the road leading from Clearwell to Coleford, which boundary divides the said new parish of Clearwell from the new parish of Saint John Coleford aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the
