WHEREAS We, the Local Government Board, are empowered by Section 130 of the Public Health Act, 1875, from time to time, to make, alter, and revoke such Regulations as to Us may seem fit, with a view to the treatment of persons affected with Cholera, and preventing the spread of Cholera, as well on the seas, rivers, and waters of the United Kingdom, and on the high seas within three miles of the coasts thereof, as on land ; and may declare by what Authority or Authorities such Regulations shall be enforced and executed ;

And whereas by Section 2 of the Public Health Act, 1889, it is enacted that Regulations of the Local Government Board made in relation to Cholera and Choleraic Diarrhœa, in pursuance of Section 130 of the Public Health Act, 1875, may provide for such Regulations being enforced and executed by the Officers of Customs, as well as by other Authorities and Officers, and without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by the said Section, may provide for the detention of vessels and of persons on board vessels, and for the duties to be performed by Pilots, Masters of Vessels, and other persons on board vessels ; provided that the Regulations, so far as they apply to the Officers of Customs, shall be subject to the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs ;
