

be moved through the open lands of the New Forest which are subject to the right of pannage, or along the roads through such lands, in a van, cart, or other vehicle used for carrying swine on land otherwise than on a railway, without unloading, with a movement licence of a Verderer of the New Forest, or of the Deputy Surveyor of the New Forest, or of their or his appointee or appointees under this Order.

Granting of Movement Licences.

7.—(1.) A Verderer of the New Forest, or the Deputy Surveyor of the New Forest, or their or his appointee or appointees may, if they think fit, withhold a movement licence in any case where the movement of the swine proposed to be moved would be in their judgment inexpedient or improper.

(2.) No Licence for movement of a pig granted under this Order shall be available if granted by the owner of the pig to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the pig, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the occupier of the farm or premises from or to which the pig is to be moved.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

8.—(1.) Every person in charge of swine being moved, where under this Order a movement licence may be necessary, shall, on demand of a Verderer of the New Forest, or of any officer of the Verderers of the New Forest, or of the Deputy Surveyor of the New Forest or any officer acting under him, or of a Justice, or of a Constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the movement licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the person so authorized under this Article to demand the movement licence.

9.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, or of the conditions of a movement licence thereunder, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2.) If a person in charge of swine being moved, where under this Order a movement licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.
